Translator's Preface

الحمد لله رب العالمين ، والصلاة والسلام على عبده ورسوله محمد وآله
وصحبه أجمعين . أما بعد .

In the name of Allah, the Merciful, the Compassionate.

All praise is to Allah, the Lord of all the worlds. Peace and blessings be upon His noble Slave and Messenger, Muḥammad and upon his family and Companions.

وَعَنْ أَمِيرِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ أَبِي حَفْصٍ عُمَرَ بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ رضي الله عنه قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ
اللَّهِ ﷺ يَقُولُ: «إِنَّمَا الْأَعْمَالُ بِالنِّيَّاتِ وَإِنَّمَا لِكُلِّ امْرِئٍ مَا نَوَى ، فَمَنْ كَانَتْ
هِجْرَتُهُ إِلَى اللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ فَهِجْرَتُهُ إِلَى اللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ ، وَمَنْ كَانَتْ هِجْرَتُهُ إِلَى
دُنْيَا يُصِيبُهَا وَامْرَأَةٍ يَنْكِحُهَا فَهِجْرَتُهُ إِلَى مَا هَاجَرَ إِلَيْهِ» (متفق عليه).

Amīr al-Mu'minīn Abū Ḥafs Sayyidunā 'Umar ibn al-Khaṭṭab رضي الله عنه narrated that he heard Rasūlullah ﷺ saying, "Verily the reward for deeds depend upon intentions and indeed every person shall receive what he intended for. Thus, he whose emigration was for Allah and His Messenger, his emigration will be considered for Allah and His Messenger. He whose emigration was towards the world or to be married to a woman, his emigration will be for whatever he migrated for.”

This book has been prepared for the beginner, especially those students studying at a “madrasah”. Many Arabic terminologies have been maintained with the translation in the bracket.

Footnotes provide assistance for teacher in explaining the text. The students are required to be familiar with the text of Safīnat al-najā. It is better if the students can memorize the Arabic text so that they gain acquaintance with the jurisprudence or at least be able to read it fluently.

Every effort was made to present a precise and accurate translation with proper explanations. The explanations were mostly derived from “Kāshifat al-sajā’ sharh Safīnat al-najā”, “Reliance of the Traveller” and “al-Iqnā’ fī halli alfāẓi matn Abī Shujā”. The additional chapter of Ḥajj and ‘Umrah was taken from the “Al-Fiqh al-manhaji ‘alā madhhab al-Imām al-Shāfi‘ī,” and “Reliance of the Traveller”. The measurements and conversions were based on the book, “al-Maqādīr al-shar‘iyyah” by Dr. Najm al-dīn al-Kurdī. The biographical notes were taken from the book, “Reliance of the Traveller”.

I would like to take this opportunity to pay a particular tribute to my mother. It is through her sacrifice and du‘ā that I was able to reach this stage. It is incumbent upon me to extend my deepest gratitude to my elders: Muftī Ibrahīm Desai and Mawlānā Muḥammad Ṭaha Karan for their encouragement and support.

This work is completed with the tremendous help and assistant of my ustadh, Mawlānā Muḥammad ibn Harun ‘Abasoomar, my brother Hāfiẓ Luqmān Hasbi, my friends Hāfiẓ Reeaz Iqbal and Hāfiẓ Ziyād Dankā. This book could not have been published without significant aid from Mawlānā Ibrahim Muḥammad and Mawlānā Imran Hatia. May Allah ﷻ reward them and all those who were involved directly or indirectly in completing this task, here and in the hereafter.

Lastly, I beseech Almighty Allah ﷻ for His acceptance and that He ﷻ makes this a source of benefit for all. Āmīn.

« مَنْ يُرِدِ اللَّهُ بِهِ خَيْرًا يُفَقِّهْهُ فِي الدِّينِ » (البخاري)

For whomsoever Allah ﷻ intends goodness, He gives him the understanding of Dīn. [al-Bukhārī]

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ
الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ وَبِهِ نَسْتَعِينُ عَلَى أُمُورِ الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ وَصَلَّى اللَّهُ

Islam and Iman

Islam and Iman

فصل : أَرْكَانُ الْإِسْلَامِ خَمْسَةٌ :

- (1) شَهَادَةُ أَنْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَأَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ (2) وَإِقَامُ الصَّلَاةِ (3) وَإِيتَاءُ الزَّكَاةِ (4) وَصَوْمُ رَمَضَانَ (5) وَحُجُّ الْبَيْتِ مَنْ اسْتَطَاعَ إِلَيْهِ سَبِيلًا.

Section: The Integrals of Islām are Five:

1. To bear witness that there is no god except Allah and that Muḥammad ﷺ is the messenger of Allah.
2. To establish ṣalāh.¹
3. To discharge zakāh.²
4. To fast in the month of Ramaḍān.³
5. To perform ḥajj for those who are able.⁴

¹ The most virtuous physical worship is ṣalāh, then fasting, then ḥajj and then zakāh. As for worship pertaining to the heart like imān (belief), maʿrifah (gnosis), tafakkur (reflection), trust in Allah ﷻ, patience, hope, contentment with Allah's decree, love of Allah ﷻ, repentance, purification of blameworthy traits like greed, anger, pride, malice etc. these are far more superior than physical worship. The most virtuous of them being imān.

² Zakāh literally means growth, blessings, purification or praise. In Sacred Law it is the name for a particular amount of property that must be paid to certain kinds of recipients under certain conditions.

³ Fasting was made farḍ in Shaʿbān, the second year Hijrī. Rasullullah ﷺ fasted for nine complete Ramaḍāns.

⁴ Both ḥajj and ʿumrah are wājib in the Shāfiʿī's madhhab (school of thought).

فصل : أَرْكَانُ الْإِيمَانِ سِتَّةٌ :

- (1) أَنْ تُؤْمِنَ بِاللَّهِ (2) وَمَلَائِكَتِهِ (3) وَكُتُبِهِ (4) وَرُسُلِهِ (5) وَبِالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ
(6) وَبِالْقَدَرِ خَيْرِهِ وَشَرِّهِ مِنَ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى .

Section: The Integrals of Īmān (Faith) are Six:

1. To believe in Allah.⁵
2. To believe in His Angels.⁶
3. To believe in His Books.⁷

⁷ To believe in all the Books revealed by Allah to His messengers. It is wājib to know four books in particular: (1) the Tawrah of Nabī Mūsā

4. To believe in His Messengers.⁸
5. To believe in the Final Day.⁹
6. To believe in Destiny, good and evil, is from Allah the Exalted.¹⁰

ﷺ, (2) the Zabur of Nabī Dāwud ﷺ, (3) the Injīl of Nabī ‘Īsā ﷺ and (4) the Qur’ān of Nabī Muhammad ﷺ.

⁸ To believe in the Prophets and Messengers of Allah ﷻ, that Allah ﷻ sent them to man and jinn to guide them to the path of the Truth. Four attributes are necessary for all Messengers (1) Truthfulness, (2) Trustworthiness, (3) Conveying the message, and (4) Intelligence. It is wājib to know twenty-five of them: (1) Adām, (2) Idrīs (Enoch), (3) Nūh (Noah), (4) Hūd, (5) Ṣalīh, (6) Lūṭ (Lot), (7) Ibrāhīm (Abraham), (8) Ismā‘īl (Ishmael), (9) Ishāq (Isaac), (10) Ya‘qūb (Jacob), (11) Yūsuf (Joseph), (12) Shū‘aib, (13) Ayyūb (Job), (14) Dhul Kifl (Ezekiel), (15) Mūsā (Moses), (16) Hārūn (Aaron), (17) Dāwud (David), (18) Sūlaymān (Soloman), (19) Ilyās (Elias), (20) al-Yāsa‘ (Elisha), (21) Yūnus (Jonah), (22) Zakariyyā (Zacharias), (23) Yahyā (John), (24) ‘Īsā (Jesus), and (25) Muḥammad (Peace and Salutation upon him and upon all of them).

⁹ To believe that everyone will die, and will then be resurrected. It also means to believe without doubt in Jannah (Heaven) and Jahannam (Hell), the Mīzān (Scale), the Ṣirāṭ (Path - the bridge over the Fire), the Questioning in the grave, the Reckoning (after the Resurrection), the Recompense (in Paradise), Punishment (for some sinful believers) and Torment (eternal for the unbeliever). Some will be put in Hell out of justice and some in Paradise out of Allah’s sheer generosity.

¹⁰ To believe that Allah ﷻ has ordained both good and evil before creating the creation and that all that has been and all that will be exists only through Allah’s Qaḍā’ (Decree), Qadr (Foreordinance) and Irādah (Will).

فصل : وَمَعْنَى لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ لَا مَعْبُودَ بِحَقِّ فِي الْوُجُودِ إِلَّا اللَّهُ .

Section: The meaning of the Kalimah is “In reality none is worthy of worship except Allah”.

Al-Ahkām al-Shar‘iyyah

Note: Al-Ahkām al-Shar‘iyyah - The Rulings of the Sacred Law:

In the Shāfi‘ī Madhhab (school of thought), the actions of those who are obligated to observe the precepts of religion take one of five rulings:

1. The Wājib (obligatory) action: One will be rewarded for performing them and will be liable for punishment upon abandoning them.
2. The Mandūb (recommended) action: One will be rewarded for performing them and will not be liable for punishment upon abandoning them.
3. The Mubāḥ (permissible) action: One will not be rewarded for performing them and will not be liable for punishment upon abandoning them.
4. The Makrūh (offensive) action: One will be rewarded for abandoning them and will not be liable for punishment upon performing them.
5. The Ḥarām (forbidden) action: One will be rewarded for abandoning them and will be liable for punishment upon performing them.

Taharah

Taharah

فصل : عِلَامَاتُ الْبُلُوغِ ثَلَاثٌ :

(1) تَمَامُ خَمْسَ عَشْرَةَ سَنَةً فِي الذَّكَرِ وَالْأُنْثَى (2) وَالْإِحْتِلَامُ فِي الذَّكَرِ وَالْأُنْثَى

لِتَسْنَعَ سِنِينَ (3) وَالْحَيْضُ فِي الْأُنْثَى لِتَسْنَعَ سِنِينَ .

Section: The Signs of Puberty are Three:¹

1. Reaching the age of 15 (lunar) years for a male or a female.
2. Experiencing a wet dream by a 9 year old boy or girl.
3. Menstruation for a 9 year old girl.²

¹ When a child reaches the age of seven and is mumayyiz (discerning) i.e. he can eat, drink and clean himself after using the toilet unassisted, he is ordered to perform ṣalāh and all other injunctions pertaining to ṣalāh (e.g. wuḍū'). When he reaches ten, he will be beaten for neglecting it, not severely, but so as to discipline the child, and not more than three strikes. ṣalāh and other injunctions of Shar'ah become wājib when a child reaches the age of puberty.

² Pregnancy is not a sign of puberty, rather an emission of sexual fluid prior to pregnancy is.

فصل : شُرُوطُ إِجْزَاءِ الْحَجَرِ ثَمَانِيَةٌ :

- (1) أَنْ يَكُونَ بِثَلَاثَةِ أَحْجَارٍ (2) وَأَنْ يُنْقِيَ الْمَحَلَّ (3) وَأَنْ لَا يَجِفَّ النَّحْسُ
- (4) وَلَا يَنْتَقِلَ (5) وَلَا يَطْرَأَ عَلَيْهِ آخَرُ (6) وَلَا يُجَاوِزَ صَفْحَتَهُ وَحَشَفَتَهُ (7)
- وَلَا يُصِيبُهُ مَاءٌ (8) وَأَنْ تَكُونَ الْأَحْجَارُ طَاهِرَةً .

Section: The Conditions for Using a Stone³ (to clean the private parts) are Eight:⁴

1. Three⁵ stones should be used.⁶
2. It should purify.⁷
3. The impurity should not be completely dry.⁸
4. The impurity should not have spread out.⁹
5. No other impurity should come upon it.

³ Stones suffice to clean oneself, though it is best to follow this up by washing with water.

⁴ It is wājib to use water if one of these conditions is not found.

⁶ Anything that is solid, pure and removes filth. Something deserving respect (e.g. paper; an instrument of knowledge) or something edible can not replace the use of stones.

⁷ It means to remove the filth so that nothing remains but a trace that could not be removed unless one were to use water. When this has been done, any remaining effect of impurity is excusable.

⁸ If the impurity becomes dry, using a stone will no longer suffice.

⁹ Impurity should not reach another part of the body.

6. The impurity should not go beyond the inner buttock¹⁰ and the head of the penis.
7. Water should not splash onto the stone.¹¹
8. The stones to be used should be pure.

Note: The Sunnah Way for Using a Stone:

1. Begin to wipe from front to back on the right side with the first stone, similarly wipe the left with the second, and wipe both sides and the anus with the third. Each wiping must begin at a point on the skin that is free of impurity.
2. It is sunnah (recommended) to add an odd number of stones e.g. five, seven and so on.
3. It is makrūh (offensive) to use the right hand to clean the impurity.

¹⁰ Inner buttock refers to that which is enfolded when standing.

¹¹ It will not be valid to use a wet stone.

فصل : فُرُوضُ الوُضُوءِ سِتَّةٌ :

الأَوَّلُ النِّيَّةُ الثَّانِي غَسْلُ الْوَجْهِ الثَّالِثُ غَسْلُ الْيَدَيْنِ مَعَ الْمِرْفَقَيْنِ الرَّابِعُ مَسْحُ شَيْءٍ مِنَ الرَّأْسِ الْخَامِسُ غَسْلُ الرَّجْلَيْنِ مَعَ الْكَعْبَيْنِ السَّادِسُ التَّرْتِيبُ .

Section: The Obligatory Acts of Wuḍū' (Ritual Ablution) are Six:

1. Intention.¹²
2. Washing the face.¹³
3. Washing both hands and arms including the elbows.¹⁴
4. Wiping any part of the head.¹⁵
5. Washing the feet including the ankles.
6. Tartīb (to observe the above-mentioned sequence).

فصل : النِّيَّةُ قَصْدُ الشَّيْءِ مُقْتَرِنًا بِفِعْلِهِ وَمَحَلُّهَا الْقَلْبُ وَالتَّلَفُّظُ بِهَا سُنَّةٌ وَوَقْتُهَا عِنْدَ غَسْلِ أَوَّلِ جُزْءٍ مِنَ الْوَجْهِ وَالتَّرْتِيبُ أَنْ لَا يُقَدَّمَ عَضْوٌ عَلَى عَضْوٍ .

¹² The person performing ablution either intends removing a state of ḥadath (ritual impurity) or purification for the ṣalāh.

¹³ Washing the entire face, from the point where the hairline usually begins to the chin in length, and from ear to ear in width.

¹⁴ Washing both arms completely, up-to and including the elbows once.

¹⁵ The minimum is to wipe part of a single hair, provided this part does not hang below the limit of the head (i.e. below the hairline).

Section: Intention is to intend something simultaneously with the action; its place is in the heart. To make a verbal intention is a sunnah; its time is at the beginning of washing the first portion of the face. Tartīb (sequence) is to observe the sequence of the wuḍū', such that no latter limb of wuḍū' should precede a former limb.

Note: The Sunnah Way to Perform Wuḍū' (Ritual Ablution):

1. Recite ta'awwudh: I take refuge in Allah from the accursed Shaitan (to recite A'udhubillah completely), and basmalah: In the name of Allah, Most Merciful, Most Compassionate (to recite Bismillah completely).
2. Wash the hands up-to and including the wrists three times.
3. Use the miswāk (toothstick), and then rinse the mouth and nose out three times, with three handfuls of water. One takes in a mouthful from a handful of water and sniffs up some of the rest of the handful into the nostrils thrice.
4. Wash the entire face, from the point where the hairline usually begins to the chin in length, and from ear to ear in width, three times. It is obligatory to wash all facial hair – inner, outer, as well as the skin beneath the hair, whether the hair is thick or thin – such as the eyebrows, moustache and so forth except for a thick beard.

5. Wash both arms completely, up-to and including the elbows, three times. It is sunnah to pass the fingers through each other.
6. Wipe the head by passing the wet hands from the front of the head, sliding the paired hands to the back up to the nape of the neck, and then return them to point of commencement, three times.
7. Wipe the inside of the ears with the fingertips and their outside with the thumbs, with fresh water, three times.
8. Wash the feet up-to and including the ankles, three times. Allow the water to pass between the toes by using the little finger of the left hand, beginning with the little toe of the right foot, and ending with the little toe on the left.
9. During wuḍū', it is sunnah:
 - to wash the limbs successively,
 - to begin with the right when washing the arms and legs, but both hands, cheeks, or ears, are washed simultaneously,
 - to begin with the top of the face and not to splash the water onto it,
 - to avoid splashing water onto oneself,
 - to face the qiblah, not to talk except for a necessity, and
 - not to waste water.

Note: The Cleanliness of the Body:

It is sunnah (1) to trim the fingernails and toenails, (2) to clip moustache to the extent that the pink of the upper lip is visible, it should not be plucked or shaved, (3) to pluck (or to shave) the hair of the underarms and nostrils, and to shave the pubic hair (4) to apply kuhl (an antimonie compound), (5) to apply henna for women.

Circumcision is wājib for both men and women.

It is ḥarām for both; men and women to dye their hair black, except with the intention of jihād.

- A little amount of water is that which is less than two qullahs.

¹⁶ The definition of mā' al-mutlaq (general water) is that water which is without any attributes.

¹⁷ It is not permissible to remove hadath (wuḍū' or ritual bath) or remove impurity except with "general water".

- Abundant water that which is two qullahs (approximately 190 litres) or more.
- A little amount of water will become impure when any impurity¹⁸ falls into it, even though the water does not change.¹⁹
- Abundant water will not become impure except when its taste, colour or smell changes.

This applies to both running or stagnant water.

¹⁹ Even though none of the water's characteristics (i.e. taste, colour or smell) have changed.

²² Periodic discharge of blood from the vagina.

²³ Blood discharged after giving birth.

²⁶ The intention is of removing hadath or janābah (major ritual impurity) or removing the impurity of haiḍ (menstruation). One bath will suffice with the intention of removing both major ritual impurity and the sunnah of the Friday prayer, though if only one intention is made, the bath counts for that one but not the other.

The following six people or animals are classified unworthy:

1. A person who forsakes ṣalāh.
2. A convicted married adulterer.
3. An Apostate.
4. A non-Muslim from a non-Muslim country that has war with the Muslim country.
5. A vicious dog.
6. A pig.

⁴⁰ If there is a little water that is insufficient for attaining purity, water should be used as much as possible and then tayammum should be performed for the rest of the limbs.

⁴¹ An ailment that a person fears water would cause, (1) harm to life or limb, (2) disability, (3) becoming seriously ill, (4) an increase in one's ailment, (5) a delay in recovering from one's illness, (6) considerable pain, or (7) a bad effect from the water such as a radical change in one's skin colour or a visible part of the body.

Section: The Conditions of Tayammum are Ten:

1. It must be performed with (dust of) the earth.⁴³
2. The dust must be pure.
3. The dust must not be used (i.e. already used on a limb or has been dusted off a limb).
4. The dust must not be mixed with flour or anything like flour.⁴⁴
5. A person should intend the earth.⁴⁵
6. He should wipe his face and both hands with two strikes of dust.

⁴³ It does not matter whether the earth is red, black, yellow or salty in which nothing grows. It is not permissible to perform tayammum with earth that has been turned to ashes or with clay pottery that has been pounded and softened.

⁴⁴ Like saffron or lime.

⁴⁵ Therefore, if the wind blew earth onto a person and one then passed one's hands over one's face and arms, the tayammum will not be valid even though one stood in the wind with intention of having sand blown over one.

7. He should first remove any impurity.
8. He should determine the direction of the qiblah before commencing the tayammum.⁴⁶
9. He should make tayammum after the entering of the time (of the ṣalāh).
10. He should make tayammum for every farḍ (ṣalāh).⁴⁷

Section: The Factors That Nullify Tayammum are Three.

1. Those things which nullify the ablution.
2. Apostacy.
3. Presumption that one can now obtain water (in the case where tayammum was made due to lack of water).⁵²

⁵⁰ It is not necessary to make the earth reach the skin under the hair of the face and arms. It is however necessary to pass the hands over that part of the beard which is visible.

⁵¹ It is necessary to pass the hand over the face before passing them over the arms.

⁵² This will apply even if one sees a mirage (thinking it to be water), or sees people who may have water, but it will not break if something prevents usage of the water for wudū'. For example, one sighted water but it is only sufficient for drinking or an enemy prevents one from acquiring it.

Note: The Sunnah Way to Perform Tayammum (Dry Ablution):

1. Begin in the name of Allah, Most Merciful, Most Compassionate (to recite Bismillah completely).
2. Wipe the upper face before the lower.
3. Wipe the right arm before the left.
4. For wiping the arms, hold the palms up, placing the left hand crosswise under the right with the left hand's fingers touching the back of the fingers of the right hand, passing the left hand up-to the right wrist. Then, curling the fingers around the side of the right wrist, one passes the left hand to the right elbow, then turns the left palm so it rests on the top of the right forearm with its thumb pointed away from one before passing it back down to the wrist, where one wipes the back of the right thumb with the inside of the left thumb. One then wipes the left arm in the same manner, followed by interlacing the fingers, rubbing the palms together, and then dusting the hands off lightly.
5. One separates the fingers when striking the earth each of the two times, and one must remove one's ring for the second, before wiping the arms.

⁵⁴ “On its own” without anything being mixed with it. If anything was mixed with the wine before it became vinegar, then turning it to vinegar does not purify it.

⁵⁵ Tanning means removing from a hide all excess blood, fat, hair, and so forth by using an acrid substance, even if be impure. Section: Impurities are of Three Types:

1. Mughallazah (heavy).
2. Mukhaffafah (light).

Heavy impurity is the impurity from a dog, pig, or their offspring.

Light impurity is the urine of a baby (boy) which only feeds on milk⁵⁷ and is not yet two years of age.⁵⁸

All other remaining impurities are moderate impurities.⁵⁹

- Heavy impurity becomes pure by removing it and then washing it seven times,⁶⁰ one of which should be with earth.⁶¹
- Light impurity will be purified by removing the actual impurity and sprinkling adequate water upon it (the amount of water sprinkled should be greater than the amount of urine).
- Moderate impurity is of two kinds: (1) that which has a substance and (2) that without a substance.

⁶⁴ If the blood ceases to flow in less than twenty-four hours, then it is not considered haiḍ (menstruation) and the woman must make-up the ṣalāh she omitted during it. If it ceases at twenty-four hours, within fifteen days, or between the two (the blood discharged discontinuously

- The minimum interval of purity between two menstruations is 15 days. Generally it lasts for 23 or 24 days and there is no maximum limit to the number of days between two menstruations.
- The minimum postnatal bleeding is a single discharge of blood. Generally it lasts for 40 days and the maximum period is 60 days.

Section: The Valid Excuses for Delaying the Ṣalāh from its Prescribed Time are Two:¹

(1) Sleep² and (2) forgetfulness.³

¹ A third excuse is for a person who delayed the ṣalāh to combine two ṣalāhs during a journey.

² A person was asleep before the time of ṣalāh commenced and remained asleep until the time ended. When any ṣalāh is due but not yet performed, and one wishes to lie down for a while and he is certain to awaken in time to carry out this duty, it will be makrūh for him to sleep or lie down. However, if he is not at all certain as to whether he will wake up in time or not, it is ḥarām.

³ A person forgot that he did not perform the ṣalāh and only remembered after the time of ṣalāh expired. This should not be due to unmindfulness due to engrossment in playing chess etc. in which case he will be sinful.

Section: The Conditions of the ṣalāh are Eight:⁴

1. Purity from the two ritual impurities.⁵
2. Purity of the clothing, the body,⁶ and the place⁷ (of performing ṣalāh).
3. Covering the ‘awrah (private parts).⁸
4. Facing the qiblah.⁹

⁴ The author does not mention Islām and Mumayyidh as a condition because they are well known.

⁵ Purification from minor and major ritual impurity (hadath and janabah through wuḍū’ and ritual bath respectively as well as from haiḍ and nifas).

⁶ One’s ṣalāh is invalid if one is holding the end of a rope connected with something impure.

⁷ One’s ṣalāh is valid if performed on the pure portion of a rug which is affected with some impurities, even if the rug or bed moves when one moves. The principle is that it is not permissible for a person in ṣalāh to support or carry any impurity but it is permissible for him to be supported by it, provided he is not in direct contact with the impurity.

⁸ It is a necessary condition that the clothing prevents the colour of the skin from being exposed and covers the ‘awrah from all sides including above. It is not necessary to cover the ‘awrah from below. A thin garment through which the colour of the skin is visible is not sufficient.

5. The commencement of the time of ṣalāh.¹⁰
6. Knowledge of it being farḍ.
7. Not to regard any of its farḍ acts as sunnah.¹¹
8. To abstain from those factors that nullifies the ṣalāh.

الْأَحْدَاثُ اثْنَانِ أَصْغَرُ وَأَكْبَرُ :

فَالْأَصْغَرُ مَا أَوْجَبَ الْوُضُوءَ وَالْأَكْبَرُ مَا أَوْجَبَ الْغُسْلَ .

Ritual Impurities are of two types: (1) minor ritual impurities and (2) major ritual impurities.

- (1) A minor ritual impurity is that which makes wuḍū' wājib and
- (2) a major impurity is that which makes bath wājib.

⁹ This is a necessary condition for the five farḍ ṣalāh which must be performed while facing the proper direction of qiblah whether a person is a musāfir (traveller) or a muqīm (non-traveller), riding in a vehicle or not. A musāfir may perform sunnah ṣalāh without facing the direction of qiblah.

¹⁰ A person must be certain about the commencement of the time of ṣalāh. If a person is uncertain about the commencement of the time of the ṣalāh which he has performed, that particular ṣalāh will not be correct, even if the ṣalāh was in fact carried out in its required time, unless he applies his ijtihad (discretion) to determine the time of the ṣalāh, in which case it will be correct. If he applies ijtihad and the ṣalāh was carried out before or after the time of the ṣalāh, the ṣalāh performed will be considered a qaḍā' ṣalāh if he has qaḍā' ṣalāh in his responsibility otherwise it will be considered a nafl ṣalāh.

¹¹ A person's ṣalāh is not invalidated if he thinks that all of the actions in ṣalāh are farḍ.

العَوْرَاتُ أَرْبَعٌ :

عَوْرَةُ الرَّجُلِ مُطْلَقًا وَالْأَمَةِ فِي الصَّلَاةِ مَا بَيْنَ السُّرَّةِ وَالرُّكْبَةِ .

وَعَوْرَةُ الْحُرَّةِ فِي الصَّلَاةِ جَمِيعُ بَدَنِهَا مَا سِوَى الْوَجْهِ وَالْكَفَّيْنِ .

وَعَوْرَةُ الْحُرَّةِ وَالْأَمَةِ عِنْدَ الْأَجَانِبِ جَمِيعُ الْبَدَنِ .

وَعِنْدَ مُحَارِمِهِمَا وَالنِّسَاءِ مَا بَيْنَ السُّرَّةِ وَالرُّكْبَةِ .

The ‘Awrahs (Private parts) are Four Types:

1. The ‘awrah of a man generally¹² and that of a slave-girl in ṣalāh is the area between the navel and the knees.¹³
2. The ‘awrah of a free woman in ṣalāh includes the whole body except the face and the two palms.
3. The ‘awrah of a free woman and that of a slave girl in the presence of a stranger is the entire body.
4. The ‘awrah of a free woman and a slave girl in the presence of a mahram (unmarriageable kin) or women is the area between the navel and the knees.

¹² Men includes young boys, even if they are not yet of the age of understanding. It generally means in all conditions; whether in ṣalāh or outside ṣalāh.

¹³ The knees and the navel themselves are not part of the ‘awrah, but it is wājib to cover them in order to fulfil the command of covering the ‘awrah completely.

Note: Adhān (The Call for ṣalāh) and Iqāmah (The Call to Commence the ṣalāh)

- Adhān and Iqāmah are both sunnah for the farḍ ṣalāh, whether praying alone or in a second jamaah of ṣalāh.
- To call out the adhān is better than being the imām for the ṣalāh.
- The words of the adhān:

اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ ، اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ ،
 أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ ، أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ ،
 أَشْهَدُ أَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ، أَشْهَدُ أَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ،
 حَيَّ عَلَى الصَّلَاةِ ، حَيَّ عَلَى الصَّلَاةِ ،
 حَيَّ عَلَى الْفَلَاحِ ، حَيَّ عَلَى الْفَلَاحِ ،
 اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ ، لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ .

- It is sunnah to recite the two testifications in a low voice before calling it aloud:

أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ ، أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ ،
 أَشْهَدُ أَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ، أَشْهَدُ أَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ،

- To add in the ṣubḥ ṣalāh before the final takbir (Allahu Akbar):

الصَّلَاةُ خَيْرٌ مِنَ النَّوْمِ ، الصَّلَاةُ خَيْرٌ مِنَ النَّوْمِ

- The words of the iqāmah:

اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ ،

أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ ، أَشْهَدُ أَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ،

حَيَّ عَلَى الصَّلَاةِ ، حَيَّ عَلَى الْفَلَاحِ ،

قَدْ قَامَتِ الصَّلَاةُ ، قَدْ قَامَتِ الصَّلَاةُ ،

اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ ، لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ .

When giving the adhān and iqāmah, it is mustaḥab (recommended):

- To be in the state of wuḍū', to stand, to face the qiblah, to turn the head (not the chest or feet) to the right when saying, "حَيَّ عَلَى الصَّلَاةِ" and to the left when saying, "حَيَّ عَلَى الْفَلَاحِ".
- To call out the adhān calmly and slowly, pausing for an interval after each phrase of the adhān equal to the duration of the phrase (except for repetitions of "Allahu akbar"), which are said in pairs and to give iqāmah rapidly without pausing.

- To repeat each phrase after the muadhdhin, even if in the state of janābah (major ritual impurity), during menstruation, or when reciting the Qur'ān.
- It is makrūh to call out the adhān in the state of hadath (minor ritual impurity), more severe to do so in a state of janabah (major ritual impurity), and even worse to give iqāmah while in either of these two states.
- After the words “حَيَّ عَلَى الصَّلَاةِ” and “حَيَّ عَلَى الْإِفْلَاحِ” one replies:

لَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةَ إِلَّا بِاللَّهِ

- After the words “الصَّلَاةُ خَيْرٌ مِنَ النَّوْمِ” one replies:

صَدَقْتَ وَبَرَرْتَ

- After the words “قَدْ قَامَتِ الصَّلَاةُ” one replies:

أَقَامَهَا اللَّهُ وَأَدَامَهَا

- To recite the following du‘ā after the adhān:

اللَّهُمَّ رَبَّ هَذِهِ الدَّعْوَةِ التَّامَّةِ وَالصَّلَاةِ الْقَائِمَةِ آتِ سَيِّدَنَا مُحَمَّدًا الْوَسِيلَةَ وَالْفَضِيلَةَ وَابْعَثْهُ مَقَامًا مَحْمُودًا الَّذِي وَعَدْتُهُ إِنَّكَ لَا تُخْلِفُ الْمِيعَادَ .

The conditions for the muadhdhin:

- (1) Islām, (2) mumayyidh (the age of understanding), (3) sanity and, (4) male if the adhān is for a jamā‘ah of men.

Section: The Integrals of the ṣalāh are Seventeen:

1. Intention.¹⁴
2. Takbīrat al-iḥrām (The opening statement: “Allahu Akbar”).¹⁵

¹⁴ To make intention in the heart is wājib and mustaḥab to utter it with the tongue. The intention should be simultaneous with the takbīrat al-iḥrām and remains till the completion of the takbīr.

¹⁵ Takbīrat al-iḥrām can only be in Arabic with the word, “Allahu akbar,” or “Allahul akbar”. The minimal valid audibility is that it can be heard through normal hearing. The imām calls out the takbīr aloud every time in ṣalāh. It is mustaḥab to raise the hands from the beginning of the takbīrat al-iḥrām to shoulder level, meaning that one’s fingertips are even with the tip of the ears, thumbs with the earlobes, and palms with one’s shoulders, fingers slightly outspread, the palms face the direction of qiblah and the hands are uncovered (i.e. not hidden beneath a shawl). After the takbīr, one places the hands below the chest and above the navel, grasping the left wrist with the right hand, and fixing

3. Standing in the farḍ ṣalāh for those who have the ability.¹⁶
4. Recitation of Sūrah al-Fātiḥah.¹⁷
5. Ruku' (bowing).¹⁸
6. Remaining motionless for a moment therein (ruku').
7. I'tidāl (Straightening up after ruku').¹⁹
8. Remaining motionless for a moment therein (i'tidāl)
9. Two sajdahs (prostrations).²⁰
10. Remaining motionless for a moment therein (sajdah).
11. Sitting between the two sajdahs.²¹
12. Remaining motionless for a moment therein (sitting).

one's gaze on the place where one's forehead will prostrate. The complete takbīrat al-iḥrām must be made while standing.

¹⁶ Standing is a rukn (integral) in all farḍ ṣalāh for one who can stand, whether by himself or assisted by another, however it is not a rukn in nafl ṣalāh. Standing requires that the spine be straight. One is not standing if one leans so forward that the backbone is no longer straight, or bends so that one is closer to ruku' (bowing) than to standing.

¹⁸ The best method is to raise one's hands and say, "Allahu Akbar" so that a person begins raising the hands as he starts the takbīr and when the hands are at shoulder level, he bows. It is mustaḥab to prolong the words of takbīr until one reaches the next posture in every takbīr so that no part of the ṣalāh is without dhikr. Thereafter, the hands are placed on the knees, fingers apart, with back and neck extended, leg straight and elbows out, although women keep them close, then one recites tasbīh three times.

¹⁹ The i'tidāl is to return to the posture one was in before the ruku', whether one was standing or sitting. It is wājib to intend nothing by one's movement except i'tidāl.

²⁰ In every rak'ah.

²¹ In every rak'ah and to intend nothing but sitting by one's movement.

13. Recite tashahhud at the end of ṣalāh.
14. Sitting therein (tashahhud).
15. Ṣalāh upon Nabī ﷺ therein (tashahhud).
16. Ṣalām.²²
17. To follow the sequence (of the above integral postures of ṣalāh).

²² Ending the ṣalāh with ṣalām. Someone who is not a masbūq (latecomer) to a jamā'ah ṣalāh may sit as long as he wishes after the imām's ṣalām to supplicate, finishing with his own ṣalām whenever he wishes.

Note: Description of the Ṣalāh:

Sunan Before Commencing the Ṣalāh:

To stand for the ṣalāh after the completion of the iqāmah, to be in the first row, to make the row straight, especially for the imām when he should enjoin upon the jamā‘ah to do so and to fill up the first row first, then the second, and so on.

Commencing the Ṣalāh:

One starts to make the takbīrat al-iḥrām with the intention in the heart. It is mustaḥab to recite the du‘ā iftitah after the takbīrat al-iḥrām.

After the du‘ā iftitah, it is mustaḥab to recite the ta‘awwudh. Ta‘awwudh is mustaḥab in every rak‘ah and more emphasized in the first rak‘ah. Then a person recites Sūrah al-Fātiḥah in every rak‘ah and the basmalah is one of its verses. One says “Āmīn” at the end of the al-Fātiḥah, when following an imām, one says “Āmīn” when he does, and then a second time when he completes his own recital of the al-Fātiḥah.

If one is the imām or praying alone, it is mustaḥab in the first and second rak‘ah only to recite one complete sūrah even if it be short after the al-Fātiḥah. It is mustaḥab to recite the Qur’ān in a tartīl (distinct and pleasant way) observing the rules of tajwīd and to reflect upon its meanings and lessons. One recites a longer sūrah in the first rak‘ah than in the second.

Then one makes ruku‘ (bows) from the waist. The best way is to raise one’s hands and say, “Allahu akbar” so that a person begins raising the hands as he starts the takbir and when the hands are at shoulder level, he bows. It is mustahab to prolong the words of takbir until one reaches the posture of ruku‘.

Then one makes i‘tidāl (straightening up), the best way is to raise the hand lifting them from the knees as one starts straightening up, raising them to shoulder level and the head together, saying, “sami‘allahu liman ḥamidah.” When one is standing upright, one says, “Rabbanā lakal ḥamd.”

Then one makes sajdah (prostrates), the best way is to say, “Allahu Akbar,” and to put the knees down first, then the hands, and then the forehead and nose, keeping the hands directly under one’s shoulders, with the fingers together, extended towards the direction of qiblah, and the hands uncovered. For men to maintain a one span gap between the two knees and two feet whilst women keep them together. For men to keep the stomach away from the thighs, and forearms from the sides, whilst women keep them together, and to recite “tasbīh” three times. It is commendable to supplicate before Allah ﷻ while prostrating.

Then one raises the head and sits before prostrating a second time, the best way is to say, “Allahu akbar,” as one raises the head, to sit in “iftirāsh,” which is to place the left foot on its side and to sit upon it while keeping the right foot on the bottom of its toes, heel up. To place both one’s hands on the thighs near the knees, fingers extended and held together and to recite the du‘ā, “Rabbighfirlī, warḥamnī, wajburnī, warfa’nī, warzuqnī, wahdinī, wa’āfinī, wa’fu’annī.”

Then one prostrates again just as before and after this one raises the head, saying, “Allahu akbar,” as one first raises it, prolonging the takbir until one is standing upright.

It is sunnah, here and in each rak‘ah that is not followed by the tashahhud, to briefly rest in the iftirāsh style of sitting before rising. Then one rises, supported by both hands, palms down, and prolonging the takbir until standing. This is called “jilsat al-istirāhah” and is not done after “sajdah al-tilawah”.

Then one performs the second rak‘ah of the ṣalāh just like the first, except for the initial intention, the takbīrat al-ihrām, and du‘ā iftitah.

If one’s ṣalāh exceeds two rak‘ahs, one sits in iftirāsh after the first two rak‘ahs and recites the tashahhud and the ṣalāh upon the Nabi ﷺ, but not upon his family (which is done in the final tashahhud). Then one rises, saying, “Allahu akbar,” and supported on one’s hands as before. When standing, one raises the hands to shoulder level (which one does here, but not after rising from the first or third rak‘ah), and then goes on to perform the remainder of the ṣalāh as one did in the second rak‘ah, except that one recites the al-Fātiḥah to oneself and does not recite a sūrah after it.

One sits at the end of one’s ṣalāh for the last tashahhud in the “tawarruk” style of sitting, with one left posterior on the ground and left foot on its side, emerging from under the right, which is vertical.

In the two tashahhuds, the left hand rests on the left thigh near the knee, its fingers extended and held together. The right hand is similarly placed, but is held closed with its thumb touching the side of the index finger, which alone is left extended. One raises the index finger and points with it when one says the words, “illallah,” in the tashahhud.

Closing the ṣalāh:

Then one says the final “salām”. The best way is to say, “Assalāmu ‘alaykum waraḥmatullah,” and to turn the head to the right enough to show the right cheek to those behind. One thereby intends to finish the ṣalāh and intends to make salām to the Angels and Muslims whether human or jinn on the right. Then turns one’s head to the left and repeat the salām, intending to greet those on the left. The follower may intend one of the salāms to be a response to the salām of the imām.

It is mustahab to make dhikr and du‘ā silently after ṣalāh. Al-Imām al-Shāfi‘ī mentioned in al-Umm, “I prefer that the imām and follower make dhikr after the salām, and do so silently, unless the imām wants to be learned from, in which case he says the dhikr aloud until he believes that the congregation has learned from him, after which he will say it silently.”

The imām turns for dhikr and du‘ā so that his right side is towards the jamā‘ah and his left side towards the qiblah. He leaves his place as soon as he finishes. If there are no women (in which case he waits for them to leave first). It is mustahab for the followers to remain seated until the imām stands.

Section: There are Three Degrees of Intention:

If the ṣalāh is farḍ, it is compulsory to intend:²³

- a. The act of ṣalāh – the intention of performing ṣalāh.
- b. The actual ṣalāh that is being offered e.g. Ṣuḥr or ‘Aṣr.
- c. It being a farḍ ṣalāh.

If the ṣalāh is a periodic nafl like “rawātīb”²⁴ or it has a specific reason²⁵, it is compulsory to intend:

- a. The act of ṣalāh – the intention of performing ṣalāh.
- b. The actual ṣalāh that is being offered e.g. sunnah before ṣubḥ or “Istisqā’” (ṣalāh seeking rain).

If the ṣalāh is a muṭlaq nafl,²⁶ it is compulsory to intend:

- a. The act of ṣalāh – the intention of performing ṣalāh.

²³ It is sufficient for a person to make intention to offer the farḍ ṣalāh of Ṣuḥr.

²⁴ Those sunnah ṣalāh performed either before or after the five farḍ ṣalāh.

²⁵ Like the ṣalāh of ‘Eid al-Fiṭr or ṣalāh al-istisqā’ (seeking rain). It is sufficient that a person makes intention to offer ṣalāh of ‘Eid al-Fiṭr or al-istisqā’.

²⁶ Those nafl ṣalāh that have no time or cause. A person performs them when one wants for additional rewards. It is sufficient to merely make the intention of performing ṣalāh for these ṣalāh.

Section: The Conditions of Takbīrat al-ihrām are Sixteen:

1. That it is pronounced while standing in the farḍ ṣalāh.
2. That it be in Arabic.
3. That it be with the word “Allahu”.

6. Not to lengthen the hamzah of the word “Allah”.²⁷

Section: The Conditions of Sūrah al-Fātiḥah are Ten:

1. Sequence.
2. Continuity.³²
3. To perfect (pronunciation of) it's letters.
4. To perfect it's tashdīds.
5. Not to pause for a long or short while with the intention of terminating the recitation.
6. Reciting all its verses including the “basmalah”.
7. Not to commit a mistake that alters the meaning.³³
8. To recite it while standing in the farḍ ṣalāh.³⁴
9. To hear one's own recitation.

³² The al-Fātiḥah is not considered to be interrupted if a one replies to the “Āmīn” of the imām, reminding him of the right ayat (verse) when he errs, prostrates with the imām in “sajdah tilāwah”, forgetfully falls silent or absentmindedly adds some dhikr in it.

³³ If one omits one of the al-Fātiḥah's letters, fails to double a letter that should be doubled, or substitutes a wrong letter for the right one, it invalidates one's recital of that particular word, and one must recite that word again. This will not invalidate one's ṣalāh unless it changes the meaning and was done deliberately. Mistakes in a harakah (short vowel) are not harmful as long as they do not alter the meaning.

³⁴ Its entire letters should be recited while standing.

10. No foreign dhikr or recitation should be recited in-between (the al-Fātiḥah).

3. To make sajdah by resting on the head.⁴¹

5. Not to prostrate on something that moves with one's own movement.
6. That one rear's be higher than one's head.
7. Remain motionless for a moment whilst prostrating.

The Seven Limbs of Prostration are:

The forehead, both palms, both knees and the portion under the toes of each foot.

³⁹ It is sunnah to place the nose on the ground, however, sajdah will be in order if the nose does not touch the ground.

⁴⁰ If one is wearing a bandage over the forehead because of an injury, sajdah may be made on the bandage without the need of repeating it afterwards with the condition that the bandage was put on while one was in the state of purity.

⁴¹ The weight of the head and neck should be applied to the place of sajdah so that the forehead is firmly stationed on the ground.

⁴² If one merely fell down after the i'tidāl, this will not be regarded as sajdah. The person will have to return to i'tidāl and then go into sajdah.

Section: The Times of ṣalāh are Five:⁴⁴

- The time of Ṣuḥr begins after the sun descends from its zenith (zawāl) and it ends when an object's shadow equals its length in addition to the length of its shadow at the time of zawāl.
- The time of 'Aṣr begins when the object's shadow equals its length in addition to the length of its shadow at the time of zawāl, and ends when the sun sets.
- The time of Maḡrīb begins from sunset and ends with the disappearance of the red horizon.
- The time of 'Ishā' begins from the setting of the red horizon and it ends at ṣubḥ ṣadiq.
- The time of Ṣubḥ begins from the dawn until sunrise.

There are three types of horizons; red, yellow and white:

- The red horizon is at the time of Maḡrīb, while the yellow and white are at the time of 'Ishā'. It is sunnah to delay the ṣalāh of 'Ishā' till the yellow and white horizons disappear.

⁴⁴ It is best to pray every prayer at the beginning of its time, taking the necessary steps at its outset, such as purification, clothing one's 'awrah, giving the adhan and iqamah, and then praying. If less than one rak'ah of one's ṣalāh occurs within the proper time (meaning that one does not raise one's head from the second sajdah of the rak'ah before the time ends) and the remainder takes place after it, then the entire ṣalāh is considered as qaḍā'. It is not permissible to intentionally delay the ṣalāh until part of it is prayed after the time has terminated.

Section: There are 5 times in a day during which it is ḥarām⁴⁵ to offer those ṣalāhs which do not have an immediate or preceding cause:⁴⁶

1. At the time of sunrise until the sun rises to the extent of the height of a spear.
2. At the time when the sun is at its zenith until it declines, except on Fridays.
3. At the time the sun becomes yellow/pale until sunset.
4. After Ṣubh ṣalāh until sunrise.
5. After ‘Aṣr ṣalāh until sunset.

⁴⁵ It is neither ḥarām nor makrūh to offer ṣalāh within the Sanctuary of Makkah at any time.

⁴⁶ The ṣalāh is unlawful and invalid and it will not discharge a person from a vow. It is permissible at the above times to offer ṣalāh that are performed for a particular reason, such as the salat al-janazah (funeral ṣalāh), taḥiyyat al-masjīd (greeting the mosque), sunnah after wuḍū’, and is also permissible to make qaḍā’ ṣalāh though one may not perform the two rak‘ahs that are sunnah before entering the state of iḥrām.

1. Between the takbīrat al-iḥrām and the “du‘ā iftitah” (the opening du‘ā).⁴⁸
2. Between the “du‘ā iftitah” (the opening du‘ā) and *ta‘awwudh*⁴⁹.
3. Between the ta‘awwudh and Sūrah al-Fātiḥah.
4. Between the completion of Sūrah al-Fātiḥah and saying, “Āmīn”.
5. Between “Āmīn” and the sūrah.
6. Between the sūrah and bowing (ruku‘).

⁴⁷ It is mustaḥab to pause for the duration of one tasbīh (duration of reciting one “subḥānallāh”).

⁴⁸ It is mustaḥab for the imām to remain silent for the time that a follower can recite Sūrah al-Fātiḥah and for him to engage in the recitation of the Qur’ān or du‘ā silently.

⁴⁹ Ta‘awwudh is to recite “A‘ūdhubillāhi minash shaiṭānir rajīm”.

فصل : الأركان التي تلزمه فيها الطمأنينة أربعة :

Section: There are Four Postures in Which Ṭuma'nīnah (Composure) is Compulsory:

1. In ruku'.
2. In i'tidāl (when straightening up after ruku').
3. In sajdah.
4. While sitting between the two sajdahs.

Ṭuma'nīnah (composure) is a pause after movements to such an extent that every limb remains in its place for the duration of reciting one “subhānallah”.

فصل : أسباب سجود السهو أربعة :

الأول ترك بعض من أبعاد الصلاة أو بعض البعض الثاني فعل ما يبطئ عمده ولا يبطئ سهوه إذا فعله ناسياً الثالث نقل ركن قولي إلى غير محله الرابع إيقاع ركن فعلي مع احتمال الزيادة .

Section: The Causes for Sajdah Sahw⁵⁰ (Prostration of Forgetfulness) are Four:

1. Leaving out some of the “ṣunan ab‘aḍ” (main sunnah), either completely or partly.⁵¹
2. To forgetfully do an action that would nullify the ṣalāh if it was done intentionally.⁵²
3. To recite a verbal integral of ṣalāh in an inappropriate place.⁵³
4. To perform a physical integral with the possibility of it being an extra integral.⁵⁴

⁵⁰ The sajdah sahw, even if there are numerous reasons for it in one ṣalāh, is only two sajdahs (prostrations).

⁵² Such as turning the head, taking one or two steps, lengthening a short integral like i‘tidāl or a little speech, provided it is not the type of action whose unintentional performance also invalidates the ṣalāh such as much speech or action, since doing it would in any case invalidate the ṣalāh.

⁵³ Such as reciting a part or all of the al-Fātiḥah or tashahhud at the wrong place. This will not apply to the tasbīḥāt even though one did so purposely.

⁵⁴ When one is uncertain whether he or she has prayed three rak‘ahs or four, one should assume that he or she did not perform it.

فصل : أْبْعَاضُ الصَّلَاةِ سَبْعَةٌ :

Section: The Sunan Ab‘aḍ⁵⁵ (Main Sunnahs) of ṣalāh are Seven:

1. The recitation of the first tashahhud.⁵⁶
2. The sitting therein (in the first tashahhud).
3. The recitation of ṣalāh upon Nabi ﷺ therein (in the first tashahhud).⁵⁷
4. The recitation of ṣalāh upon his family in the final tashahhud.
5. The recitation of du‘ā Qunūt.
6. The recitation of ṣalāh and salām upon Nabi ﷺ (in du‘ā Qunūt).
7. The recitation of ṣalāh and salām upon his family and his Companions therein (in du‘ā Qunūt).

⁵⁵ Sunan ab‘aḍ are those sunnah acts that if omitted can be compensated for by sajdah sahw. On the other hand, those sunnah acts that cannot be compensated for by sajdah sahw are called sunan hay‘ah.

⁵⁶ If the imām left out the first tashahhud, it is not permissible for the follower to act contrary to the imām i.e. the follower will have to also follow the imām in this act.

⁵⁷ If the imām lengthens the first tashahhud for a valid reason and the follower completed the first tashahhud before the imām, the follower should not continue and recite the ṣalāh upon the family of Nabī ﷺ, rather he should occupy himself with du‘ā.

Section: The Factors Which Nullify the ṣalāh are Fourteen:

1. Hadath (ritual impurity).⁵⁸
2. Impurity falling on the body or clothes⁵⁹ if not removed immediately⁶⁰ without carrying it.⁶¹
3. Exposing of the 'awrah if it was not covered immediately.⁶²

⁵⁸ Even unintentionally, if a person forgot to perform wuḍū' and offers a ṣalāh, this ṣalāh will not be valid.

⁵⁹ If an imām led a jamā'ah while there was impurity on his clothes, the entire jamā'ah will have to repeat the ṣalāh if the impurity was visible to others or if it was in such a place that all could have seen it. If it was not visible, the imām alone will have to repeat the ṣalāh.

⁶⁰ Not more than the minimum amount of one tasbeeh.

⁶¹ By removing the impurity – for example with the side of a stone or a stick without carrying the stone or stick.

4. Intentionally uttering one or two letters which can be clearly understood.⁶³
5. To break the fast intentionally (in ṣalāh).⁶⁴
6. To forgetfully eat a lot.⁶⁵
7. Three consecutive motions even if involuntarily.⁶⁶
8. Extra movement that is contrary to the habit of a sane person.⁶⁷
9. An excessive strike of the hand.⁶⁸

⁶² When the ‘awrah of a person becomes exposed even slightly, the ṣalāh is invalidated. However, if it was exposed because of wind and it is covered up immediately with little movement, the ṣalāh remain valid. If much movement is done to cover the exposed part, the ṣalāh will be invalidated.

⁶³ The ṣalāh is invalidated when two or more letters worth of sounds such as laughter, crying, groaning, clearing the throat, blowing, sighing, or similar are audible. If the need to cough arises involuntarily, a person should try his utmost to suppress it. However if after trying hard, the need still subsists, he may cough for relief even if a sound of two or more syllables is formed.

⁶⁴ Any action that invalidates the fast like inserting a stick into the body cavity.

⁶⁵ The ṣalāh is invalidated when any (even if a little) substance reaches the body cavity intentionally. It also invalidates the ṣalāh if it occurs absentmindedly or in ignorance of its prohibition, provided the amount of the substance is commonly acknowledged to be much, though not invalidated if it is little.

⁶⁶ The ṣalāh is invalidated by adding, even if absentmindedly, a motion that is not one of the actions of ṣalāh, provided it is both considered by ‘urf (common acknowledgement) to be much and uninterruptedly consecutive, such as three steps or successively moving three separate body parts – like the head and two hands, though an up-and-down motion is considered as just one – or three or more consecutive motions.

⁶⁷ Such as jumping, it invalidates the ṣalāh.

10. To intentionally add an extra physical integral of ṣalāh.⁶⁹
11. To precede the imām in two physical integrals of ṣalāh.⁷⁰
12. To delay with the two integrals without an excuse.⁷¹
13. The intention of terminating the ṣalāh by suspending its termination on a foreign action.⁷²
14. By doubting its termination.⁷³

⁶⁸ One or two slight movements do not invalidate the ṣalāh. If a person only moves a finger e.g. to scratch an itching place on the body, the ṣalāh does not break even if he moves his finger tip many times.

⁶⁹ When a person intentionally performs extra integral e.g. three sajdahs or two ruku's in one rak'ah.

⁷⁰ To complete two integrals before the imām does invalidates the ṣalāh. If one does so absentmindedly or in ignorance of its prohibition, it does not invalidate the ṣalāh, but the rak'ah is not counted and one must now add an additional rak'ah after the imām finishes with salām to complete the ṣalāh.

⁷¹ Without an excuse, it is makrūh to lag behind the imām until he completed an integral, and it invalidates one's ṣalāh to lag behind the imām until he completed two integrals. If the imām bows and straightens-up while without excuse one has not yet bowed, it does not invalidate one's ṣalāh until the imām actually begins going down towards prostration and one still not bowed.

⁷² To decide to break one's ṣalāh if such and such a thing happens, regardless whether the event will definitely occur during the ṣalāh or whether it may happen, such as, "I will stop if Zayd enters."

⁷³ Not to know whether one has terminated or not; means one hesitates in one's heart, saying, "Shall I stop intending ṣalāh or continue?" The mere thought of how it would be if one were to hesitate during the ṣalāh is of no consequence, rather the occurrence of doubt that negates one's resolve and certainty is what is considered here.

Note: Sunan Rawātib – The Sunnah ṣalāh Before and After the Farḍ ṣalāh:

The optimal numbers of these are:

- Two rak‘ahs before Ṣubh ṣalāh.
- Four rak‘ahs before and after Ṣuḥr ṣalāh.
- Four rak‘ahs before ‘Asr ṣalāh.
- Two rak‘ahs after Maghrīb ṣalāh.
- Two rak‘ahs after ‘Ishā’ ṣalāh.

The sunnah muakkadah (emphasized sunnah) consist of ten rak‘ahs:

- Two rak‘ahs before Ṣubh ṣalāh.
- Two rak‘ahs before and after Ṣuḥr ṣalāh.
- Two rak‘ahs after Maghrīb ṣalāh.
- Two rak‘ahs after ‘Ishā’ ṣalāh.

It is recommended to pray two rak‘ahs before Maghrīb ṣalāh.

The sunan of Jumu‘ah are the same as for Ṣuḥr ṣalāh.

Witr ṣalāh – The Final ṣalāh at Night:

The best time for Witr is after the sunnah of ‘Ishā’ ṣalāh, unless one intends to offer the Tahajjud ṣalāh. Witr is a minimum of one rak‘ah and the optimal is to perform eleven rak‘ahs. Three rak‘ahs is the minimal optimal number of rak‘ah and one separates them by completing two rak‘ahs with salām and then performs the final rak‘ah. One recites Sūrah al-‘Alā in the first rak‘ah, Sūrah al-Kāfirūn in the second rak‘ah, and Sūrah al-Ikhlāṣ, Sūrah al-Falāq and Sūrah al-Nās in the third rak‘ah.

Tarāwīḥ ṣalāh:

It is sunnah to perform tarāwīḥ, which is twenty rak‘ahs of group prayer on each night of Ramaḍān.

Ḍuḥā ṣalāh:

It is sunnah to pray the Ḍuḥā ṣalāh (midmorning prayer), which minimum of two rak‘ahs, is optimum eight rak‘ahs, and a maximum of twelve. One completes a pair of rak‘ahs with salām.

Taḥajjud ṣalāh:

Nafḥ ṣalāh (superogatory prayer) at night is an emphasized sunnah, even if one can only do a little. The last part of the night is the best time to offer taḥajjud ṣalāh.

Taḥiyyat al-masjid:

It is sunnah for one who enters a masjid to greet the masjid by praying two rak‘ahs each time he enters. One is no longer entitled to pray it after sitting.

Section: The Intention of Being an Imām is Compulsory⁷⁴ in Four Conditions:

1. The Friday Prayer.⁷⁵
2. To repeat the farḍ or nafl ṣalāh in its time hoping for reward.⁷⁶
3. A vowed ṣalāh that is to be performed in congregation.⁷⁷
4. A ṣalāh offered before its time due to rain.⁷⁸

⁷⁴ The intention of being an imām is compulsory upon the imām during takbīrat al-ihrām. As for the follower, the intention of being a follower is wājib if he intends to follow the imām even in the middle of ṣalāh besides in these four conditions in which case it is wājib for him to intend being a follower during takbīrat al-ihrām.

⁷⁵ If the imām leaves out the intention of being an imām during takbīrat al-ihrām, his ṣalāh will not be valid.

⁷⁶ To repeat the farḍ ṣalāh that was performed in its time or nafl ṣalāh, which was sunnah to perform in jamā'ah (except Witr ṣalāh in the month of Ramaḍān because there is no repetition for Witr). And to repeat them (once) both on their time with jamā'ah (in the entire ṣalāh) hoping for the reward of jamā'ah.

⁷⁷ If a person leaves out the intention of being an imām during takbīrat al-ihrām, his ṣalāh alone is valid but he will be sinful.

⁷⁸ A group of people who are gathered because of rain and they perform jama' taqdim, if the imām left out the intention of being an imām, his ṣalāh will not be valid.

Section: The Conditions for Following an Imām⁷⁹ are Eleven:

1. The ma'mūm (follower) shouldn't know of any invalidity of the ṣalāh of his imām due to ritual impurity or anything else.⁸⁰

⁷⁹ Ṣalāh jamā'ah is farq al-kifayah (communal obligation) upon all males, free persons, muqīm (non-travellers), sane individuals and those that have reached the age of puberty for the five farq ṣalāh and sunnah for female, such that the rite of the ṣalāh be public in a manner that the manifestation of obedience to Allah's command are evident. If held in houses where the rite of ṣalāh is not public, the obligation remains unfulfilled though a house with a sign on it is sufficient. It is best for men to offer ṣalāh in jamā'ah at the masjid and better for women to pray at home than at the masjid.

⁸⁰ It is valid for a Shāfi'ī to follow an imām of a different madhhab whenever the follower is not certain that the imām has omitted an obligatory component of ṣalāh. However, if certain that the imām has omitted one, it is not valid to follow him. The validity is based solely on the madhhab of the follower as to whether or not something obligatory has been omitted. Example, a Shāfi'ī followed a Hanafi imām who touched his private part. According to the madhhab of the

2. It should not be such that according to the madhhab of the ma'mūm, the ṣalāh of the imām is invalid and has to be repeated.⁸¹
3. The imām should not be a follower.⁸²
4. Nor an illiterate person.⁸³
5. The ma'mūm should not stand ahead of the imām.⁸⁴
6. The ma'mūm should be aware of the movements of his imām.⁸⁵
7. The imām and the ma'mūm are in the same masjid⁸⁶ or approximately 300 arm lengths apart.⁸⁷ follower the wuḍū' of the imām is invalidated but not in the madhhab of the imām.

⁸¹ It should not be such a follower following the ṣalāh of a person which will have to be repeated, like a person offering ṣalāh with tayammum because of cold, a muqīm who made tayammum in a place where normally water can be found easily or a person who does not find neither water for wuḍū' nor earth for tayammum. In these situations, the ṣalāh should be repeated, although the ṣalāh was valid according to the madhhab of the imām.

⁸² It invalidates one's ṣalāh to take a ma'mūm as one's imām when the ma'mūm is concurrently praying behind an imām, though if his imām finishes with salām and the ma'mūm is still praying, he may then be taken as one's imām.

⁸³ A qari, one who recites Qur'ān properly, may not follow one who is unable to recite Al-Fātiḥah properly, irrespective of him being unable to recite other verses properly beside Al-Fātiḥah or not.

⁸⁴ The follower's ṣalāh is invalid if his heel is in front of the imām's. His heel should be behind the imām's heel, even if it be a little, but not more than three arms length, in which case, the merit of jamā'ah is lost.

⁸⁵ Whether by seeing the imām, or hearing his muballigh (the person who repeats the imām's takbīr in a loud voice so people can hear).

⁸⁶ Whenever an imām leads a follower in a masjid, the jamā'ah is valid even if they are at a distance from each other. Multiple interconnected

8. The ma'mūm intends to follow the imām or the congregation.⁸⁸
9. The imām and the ma'mūm conform to each other in the movement of ṣalāh.⁸⁹
10. The ma'mūm should not differ with the imām regarding those sunnahs which do not permit contradiction.⁹⁰

maṣjid openings unto each other are considered as one maṣjid. So too, is the maṣjid's outer courtyard, even when there is a walkway between the courtyard and maṣjid.

⁸⁷ When the imām and ma'mūm are not in a maṣjid, but are in an open expanse such as a desert or large house, their jamā'ah is valid as long as the distance between them does not exceed approximately 144 meters. If they are farther apart than this, their jamā'ah is not valid.

⁸⁸ The follower intends to follow the imām whether at the takbīrat al-ihṛām or thereafter. If the follower neglects to do so, his ṣalāh is as if he had performed it alone. It invalidates one's ṣalāh to purposely omit the intention to follow the imām while at the same time praying behind him and following his motions by awaiting them for a long period of time. Awaiting the motion of the imām for a short period of time or performing one's own ṣalāh simultaneously with his does not invalidate it.

⁹⁰ If the imām omits a sunnah that the ma'mūm cannot add without considerably lagging behind, such as the first tashahhud, then it is unlawful for the ma'mūm to perform the missing sunnah. He must follow the imām. If he performs it anyway intentionally knowing that it is unlawful, it invalidates his ṣalāh. If the sunnah omitted by the imām can be done without much of a lag, such as jilsat al-istirāḥah, then the

11. The ma'mūm should follow his imām.⁹¹

5. For a female to follow a female.

ma'mūm may add it without ceasing his participation in the jamā'ah. This also applies to when the imām omits the Qunūt in Subh ṣalāh, which the ma'mūm may perform it if he can catch up with the imām before the imām raises his head from second sajdah. If the imām raises his head before the ma'mūm makes sajdah even once and he has not intended to cease his participation in the jamā'ah, then the ma'mūm's ṣalāh is invalid.

⁹¹ It invalidates one's ṣalāh to say takbīrat al-iḥrām simultaneously with the imām, or to be uncertain as to whether one did so or not. It is makrūh to perform some other part of the ṣalāh simultaneously with the imām, thereby losing the merit of jamā'ah.

Section: The Conditions of Jama' Taqdim⁹² are Four:

1. To begin with the first ṣalāh.⁹³
2. To intend joining the ṣalāhs.⁹⁴

⁹² It is permissible to join Zuhri ṣalāh and 'Asr ṣalāh during the time of either of them. Similarly it is permissible to join the Maghrīb ṣalāh and Isha ṣalāh, provided one joins them during a journey in which ṣalāh may be shortened or because of severe rain.

⁹³ If one prays the second of the two ṣalāhs before the first, then that ṣalāh is invalid and must be repeated after the first, if one still wants to join them.

4. The continuity of the excuse.⁹⁶

Section: The Conditions of Jama' Ta'khīr are Two:

1. To have the intention of delaying a ṣalāh up-to after its time and to have this intention in its proper time.⁹⁷
2. The remaining of the excuse until the completion of the second ṣalāh.

⁹⁴ That the intention to join the two ṣalāhs occurs before finishing the first, either coinciding with the takbīrat al-iḥrām or occurring during the ṣalāh.

⁹⁵ Not to pause at length between them.

⁹⁶ That continues until one finishes both ṣalāhs.

⁹⁷ To make the intention before the end of the first ṣalāh's time by an interval which could contain at least one rak'ah. If one neglects this intention, one has sinned, and praying the first ṣalāh during the second ṣalāh's time is considered qaḍā'.

Section: The Conditions of Qaṣr (to shorten the ṣalāh)⁹⁸ are Seven:

1. His journey should be at least two marhalahs⁹⁹ (approximately 81 kilometers one way).
2. The journey should be a permissible one in Sharī‘ah.¹⁰⁰
3. Knowledge of the permissibility of qaṣr.
4. Intention of qaṣr during takbīrat al-iḥrām.¹⁰¹
5. The ṣalāh should be a four rak‘ahs ṣalāh.

⁹⁸ It is permissible to shorten the Zuhr, ‘Asr, and Isha ṣalāh to two rak‘ahs each. To shorten the ṣalāh of a musāfir (except a sailor and a perpetual traveller) is more virtuous if the journey reaches three marhalahs.

⁹⁹ The journey’s destination must be known. If a wife travelling with her husband or a soldier with his leader does not know the destination, they may not shorten their ṣalāh as long as they have not yet travelled the distance that permits shortening. When they have travelled it, then only may they shorten it. If they know the destination and the journey meets the condition, then they may shorten their ṣalāhs from the beginning of the journey.

¹⁰⁰ Travelling for a reason that is not disobedience to Allah ﷻ as there is no concession to shorten ṣalāh on such a journey.

¹⁰¹ It not being valid if made after takbīrat al-iḥrām.

6. The continuity of travel till the completion of the two rak‘ah ṣalāh.¹⁰²
7. That he should not follow one who is performing ṣalāh completely in any portion of his ṣalāh.

¹⁰² The ṣalāh takes place from start to finish while on the journey. If one’s vehicle arrives before the ṣalāh is completed, one will have to perform the full ṣalāh.

1. The complete ṣalāh be performed in the time of Zuhr.²
2. It should be within a district of the town.³
3. To perform the ṣalāh in congregation.
4. There should be forty free males who are mature and permanent residents of the town.⁴
5. No other congregation of Jumu'ah in the same town should be offered either before it or at the same time.⁵

¹ To attend the ṣalāh of Jumu'ah is farḍ 'ayn. It is the most virtues of ṣalāh, and its day, Jumu'ah, is the best day of the week.

² If the jamā'ah commenced the Jumu'ah ṣalāh late and they doubt before commencing if they will be able to finish it within its time, then they must begin it as a Zuhr ṣalāh.

³ In places where there is no hardship upon anyone to pray at one location.

⁴ Permanent residents means that they live there and do not leave except when they need to. The minimum according to Imām Abū ḥanīfah rahimahullah is three participants besides the imām.

6. To deliver two khuṭbahs before the ṣalāh.

Note: Sunan and Adab of Jumu'ah:

- It is mustaḥab to perform a sunnah bath and makrūh not to do so before going to the Jumu'ah ṣalāh, though it may be performed anytime after dawn.
- It is also mustaḥab to clean the teeth with miswāk, trim the nails, remove body hair, eliminate offensive odours, and wear perfume and one's finest clothes (white being the best).
- To arrive early to the masjid, the best time being from dawn on.
- To come on foot in tranquility and dignity, and not to ride to the masjid unless there is an excuse.
- To sit near to the imām and to recite dhikr, Qur'ān and ṣalāh in abundance upon Nabi ﷺ.
- It is recommended to recite Sūrah al-Kahf and ṣalāh upon Nabi ﷺ on the night before Jumu'ah and during its day.
- It is recommended to supplicate to Allah ﷻ excessively on Jumu'ahs, seeking the moment when du'ās are answered.

⁵ There be no other Jumu'ah ṣalāh prior to or simultaneous with the takbīrat al-iḥrām of the ṣalāh. That jamā'ah where the intention was made later, will have to perform Zuḥr ṣalāh.

Section: The Conditions for Delivering the Two Khuṭbahs are

Ten:

1. Purity from minor and major ritual impurities.¹¹
2. Purity from impurity on the clothes, body and place.
3. Covering the 'awrah (private parts).¹²
4. To stand; this applies to those who have the ability to.
5. To sit between the two khuṭbahs for the duration that one pauses between two postures in ṣalāh.
6. Continuity between the two khuṭbahs.

¹¹ If the khāṭib (speaker) breaks his wuḍū' during khuṭbah, the khuṭbah has to be repeated. But there is no harm if the khāṭib breaks his wuḍū' after delivering both the khuṭbahs and before performing ṣalāh.

¹² The khāṭib's 'awrah (private parts) should be covered. However, this is not a condition for the listener (for the validity of the khuṭbah). Similarly, the conditions of purity, to be in the place of ṣalāh and to understand the khuṭbah are not conditions for the ma'mūm.

7. Continuity between the two khuṭbahs and the ṣalāh.¹³
8. The khuṭbah should be in the Arabic language.¹⁴
9. Forty people should hear the khuṭbah.¹⁵
10. It should be done in the time of Ṣuḥr.

¹³ The pause between these integrals should not be too long but should rather be according to the common understanding of people and not more than the shortest two rak'ahs of ṣalāh.

¹⁴ All the integrals of the khuṭbah should be in the Arabic Language.

¹⁵ Forty people including an imām.

Note: The Sunan of the Khuṭbah:

- The Khāṭib (speaker) stand on a minbar (pulpit) or a high place and that it be to the right of the miḥrab (prayer niche) and that the khāṭib stand on the right side of the minbar.
- The khāṭib says, “Assalāmu ‘alaykum” to those present when he enters the masjid and again when he ascends the minbar and reaches his seat there.
- The khāṭib sits until the muadhdhīn has completed the second adhān.
- When speaking, the khāṭib lean on a sword, bow or stick which is in his left hand. It is desirable for him to put his other hand on the minbar. If he does not have a sword or the like, he keeps his hand still by placing the right upon the left, or dropping them to his sides. He does not move them or fidget with one, as the aim is stillness and humility.
- The khāṭib face the jamā‘ah during both khuṭbahs and should not turn to the right or left during the khuṭbahs, for it is a reprehensible innovation. It is desirable for the listener to face the khāṭib.

فصل : الَّذِي يَلْزَمُ لِلْمَيِّتِ أَرْبَعُ حِصَالٍ :

(1) غُسْلُهُ (2) وَتَكْفِينُهُ (3) وَالصَّلَاةُ عَلَيْهِ (4) وَدَفْنُهُ .

Section: There are Four Things Compulsory for the Preparation of the Deceased:¹

1. To wash the deceased.²
2. To shroud the deceased.³
3. To perform ṣalāh upon the deceased.⁴
4. To bury the deceased.⁵

¹ For the Muslim deceased who did not die in the state of iḥrām nor as a martyr. When a person dies, it is mustaḥab (recommended) that his closest maḥram (unmarriageable kin) closes his eyes and jaws in order to make his joints flexible, gently removes his clothes and covers him with a light cloth and places something heavy on his stomach.

² It is mustaḥab that the one washing the deceased be trustworthy so that he can be relied on to wash the deceased completely and so forth. If he notices something good, it is sunnah to mention it, but if he notices something bad, it is unlawful to mention it as this is backbiting.

³ It is ḥarām to look at the ‘awrah of the deceased or touch it except with a cloth. It is mustaḥab not to look at or directly touch the other parts of the body save with a cloth.

⁴ It is wājib to perform ṣalāh over the deceased. However, it is ḥarām to give a bath and to offer ṣalāh upon a martyr. The obligation is fulfilled if a single Muslim male who has reached the age of mumayyiz (discrimination) prays over the deceased. It is recommended to perform the janazah ṣalāh (funeral prayer) in a jamā‘ah (group). It is mustaḥab to pray it at a masjid and makrūh to offer the ṣalāh at a cemetery.

Section: The minimum wash is to pass water over the entire body and the best is to wash the private organs, to remove filth from the nose, to wash the limbs of wuḍū', to rub the body with lotus leaves and to pour water over the body thrice.⁶

⁵ Then the deceased is buried obligatorily. It is best to bury him in the cemetery.

⁶ It is wājib for the one washing the deceased to cover the 'awrah of the deceased. It is sunnah that no one be present except him (one washing) and his assistant. Incense should be burned from the start of washing till the finish. It is best to wash the body under a roof, and best that cold water be used, heating it when necessary so as to remove filth that could not otherwise be removed or when the weather is cold, since the deceased suffers from it just as a living person would.

Section: The minimum shrouding is one cloth that covers the whole body. The perfect shroud for a male is three cloths and for a female, a shirt, a scarf, an upper garment and two cloths.⁷

⁷ It is mustahab to scent the shroud with incense, to sprinkle on it an aromatic compound of camphor, reed perfume etc., to place cotton and perfume on the apertures of the body such as the eyes, mouth, nostril, and ears and on places that touch the ground in prostration, and to perfume the entire body except if a person dies while in a state of iḥrām .

3. To stand for those who are able.
4. Recitation of Sūrah al-Fātiḥah.¹¹
5. Ṣalāh upon Nabī ﷺ after the second takbir.¹²

⁸ The conditions of janāzah ṣalāh (funeral prayer) are the same as other ṣalāh, but in addition require: that the deceased's body has been washed before the ṣalāh and that the imām and the ma'mūm do not stand ahead of the body during the ṣalāh.

⁹ It suffices that one merely intends to pray four takbirs over the particular deceased person as a farḍ kifāyah act. The intention must coincide with the takbīrat al-ihrām.

¹⁰ One says, “Allahu Akbar”, four times in the janāzah ṣalāh, raising one's hand to shoulder level at each one, and it is mustaḥab each time to fold the right hand over the left.

¹¹ After takbīrat al-ihrām, it is wājib to recite Sūrah al-Fātiḥah. It is mustaḥab to recite ta'awwudh before it and “Amin” after it, but not to recite the “du'ā iftitah” or a sūrah therein.

¹³ The supplication for the deceased, the minimum being, “O Allah, forgive this deceased”.

¹⁴ Then one says, “Assalāmu ‘alaykum” twice, the first being wājib and the second sunnah.

¹⁵ It is mustahab for the person burying the deceased: (1) to say, “Bismillahi wa ‘ala millati Rasūlillah ﷺ”, (2) to supplicate to Allah for the forgiveness of the deceased, (3) to place a block as a pillow for him and to pull-back the shroud enough to lay his cheek directly on the surface of the block and, (4) to place the deceased upon his right side.

Section: There are Four Factors That Permit the Exhumation of the Deceased:

1. To give a bath as long as the (body of the) deceased has not decomposed.¹⁶
2. To make the deceased face towards the qiblah.¹⁷
3. For wealth if it was buried with the deceased.¹⁸
4. For a woman when her foetus is buried with her and there is a possibility that it is still alive.¹⁹

¹⁶ It is wājib to exhume a deceased who was buried without been given a bath or tayammum contrary if the deceased was buried without being shrouded. In such a case he should not be exhumed.

¹⁷ As long as the body of the deceased has not decomposed.

¹⁸ It is wājib to exhume a deceased even after the body of the deceased has decomposed; to take that wealth that has been buried with the deceased whether the owner demands it or not.

Section: There are Four Rulings for Seeking Assistance:

1. Permissible.
 2. Undesirable.
 3. Makrūh (disliked).
 4. Wājib (compulsory).
- It is permissible to ask for water to be brought close.²⁰
 - It is undesirable to ask for water to be poured towards the one making wuḍū'.²¹
 - It is makrūh for someone else to wash the limbs.
 - It is wājib for a sick person who is incapable.²²

²⁰ For the purpose of making wuḍū'.

²¹ Because this is the 'ibadah (act of worship), it is preferable to show the humility and slavery in the 'ibadah and this is attained by doing it by oneself.

²² It is wājib for one who is incapable to seek assistance even though by paying the normal salary for that task.

Zakah

Zakaḥi

فصل : الأموال التي تلزم فيها الزكاة ستة أنواع :

قِيَمَةِ عُرُوضِ التِّجَارَةِ (5) وَالرِّكَازُ (6) وَالْمَعْدِنُ.

Section: The Wealth upon Which Zakāh is Compulsory are Six Types:¹

1. Livestock.²
2. Money.³
3. Crops.⁴

¹ Zakāh is wājib on every Muslim (male, female, adult or child) who has possessed a zakāh-payable amount for one lunar year.

² Zakāh on livestock is limited to camels, cattle, sheep and goats. Zakāh is wājib when one has owned (1) a zakāh-payable number of livestock, (2) for one lunar year and (3) has been grazing them on unowned open range pasturage for the entire year. There is no zakāh on cattle that were fed fodder or grain only even if they could have otherwise been grazed.

³ Zakāh is wājib for anyone who has possessed the zakāh-payable amount of gold or silver for one lunar year. Niṣab, the minimum that necessitates zakāh for gold is 20 mithqals (84.8 grams), on which 2.5% is due and for silver is 200 dirhams (594 grams), on which 2.5% is due. While there is a considerable difference between the value of the gold and silver zakāh minimum, the minimum for monetary currency should correspond with that of silver, since it is more beneficial for the poor.

⁴ The zakāh for crops is only on the staple types that people cultivate, dry, and store, such as wheat, barley, millet, rice etc. There is no zakāh on fruit except for raw dates and grapes. There is no zakāh on vegetables nor is there zakāh on seasonings such as cumin or coriander

4. Wealth acquired from business in which two and half percent of the value of the commodity should be discharged.⁵
5. Treasure troves.⁶
6. Mines.⁷

since the aim in using them is preparation of food, not nourishment. The minimal quantity on which zakāh is payable for crops is 618.8 kilograms of net dried weight, free of husks or chaff. The zakāh for crops that have been watered without effort, as by rain and the like, is 10 percent of the crop. The zakāh for crops that have been watered with effort, such as on land irrigated by ditches is 5 percent of the crop.

One is obligated to pay zakāh as soon as one possesses the zakāh-payable amount of grain, or when the ripeness and wholeness of a zakāh-payable amount of dates or grapes is apparent, otherwise, one is not obligated.

⁵ Zakāh on trade goods is wājib for anyone who: (1) has possessed trade goods for a year, (2) whose value at the zakāh year's end equals or exceeds the zakāh minimum of gold or silver, (3) that the trade goods have been acquired through a transaction, or received as a gift given in return for something else, or such as an article rented from someone in order to rent them out to others at a profit, or land rented from someone in order to rent it out to others at a profit and, (4) that at the time of acquisition, the owner intended to use the goods for trade.

⁶ An immediate zakāh of twenty percent is due when one finds a treasure trove that was buried in pre-Islamic time or by non-Muslims, ancient or modern, if it amounts to the zakāh minimum and the land is not owned. If such a treasure is found on owned land, it belongs to the owner of the land. If found in a masjid or street, or if it was buried in Islamic times, it is considered as a lost and found article.

⁷ A zakāh of 2.5 percent is immediately due on (1) the zakāh minimum or more of gold or silver (excluding anything else such as iron, lead, crystal, emerald, or other, on which there is no zakāh), (2) extracted from a mine located on land permissible for the miner to work or owned by him, and, (3) that this amount of ore has been gathered by working at the site one time, or several times uninterrupted by abandoning or neglecting the project. The zakāh is only paid after the ore is refined into metal.

Note: The Zakāh of ‘Eid al-Fiṭr:

- The zakāh of ‘Eid al-Fiṭr is wājib for every free Muslim, male, female or child, provided that one has the necessary amount of food (2.036 kgs of wheat) or in money value thereof for the day of ‘Eid for himself and those whom one is obliged to support, what one needs to clothe them, and in excess of one’s debts and housing expenses.
- The Zakāh of ‘Eid al-Fiṭr becomes wājib when the sun sets on the night before the ‘Eid.
- The zakāh of ‘Eid al-Fiṭr consists of 2.036 kgs of the main staple of the area in which it is given, of the kinds of crops on which zakāh is payable (if the main staple is bread, only wheat may be given).
- It is permissible to give the zakāh of ‘Eid al-Fiṭr to deserving recipients anytime during Ramaḍān, though the best time is on the day of ‘Eid al-Fiṭr before the ṣalāh. It is not permissible to delay giving it until after the day of the ‘Eid, that is one may give it until sunset, and is a sin to delay until after this, and one must make it up.

Note: The Eight Categories of Recipients:

1. Faqīr (destitute) – someone who does not have wealth or earning that is sufficient for himself.
2. Miskīn (poor) – someone who has something to spend for his needs but it is not sufficient.
3. ʿĀmil – Zakāh collector.
4. Muallafat al-qulūb – those whose hearts are to be reconciled.
5. Riqāb – those slaves who are purchasing their freedom.
6. Those in debt
7. Sabīlullah (those fighting for Allah) – people engaged in Islāmic military operations for whom no salary has been allotted in the army roster.
8. Ibn al-sabīl – the traveller in need of money.

1. On completion of thirty days of Sha‘ban.
2. By sighting the moon for the person who sees it, even though he is a fāsiq (sinner).¹
3. The testimony of a just person (non-fāsiq) for those who do not sight it.²

¹ For those who do not see it, it only becomes wājib when the sighting is established by the testimony of an upright witness.

² The testimony of a single witness that the new moon has been seen is sufficient to establish that the month of Ramaḍān has come, provided the witness is upright (male, and responsible for the duties of Islam which excludes boys who have reached the age of discernment but not puberty) and together with the decree of the ruler.

4. The informing of a just person whose information is reliable, whether the heart is inclined to it being or not, and also with the information of an unreliable source if one is inclined to it being true.
5. With the perception that Ramaḍān has commenced (this is) for that person who is doubtful of it.³

³ If it is difficult to learn which month it is, for someone imprisoned or the like such as someone being held in a dark place who cannot tell night from day, or someone who does not know when Ramaḍān has come because of being in a land without habituations or people who know when it is, then such a person is obliged to reckon Ramaḍān as best as he can and to fast it. Such a fast is valid if it remains unknown as to whether the month fasted actually coincided with Ramaḍān, or if it did coincide with it, or if the month fasted occurred after it, though if the month fasted was before Ramaḍān, it is not valid.

⁷ One is capable of bearing the fast. Someone whom fasting exhausts because of advanced years or having an illness from which he is unlikely to recover are not required to fast.

⁸ The illness that permits not fasting being that which fasting would worsen, delay recovery from, or cause one considerable harm with, the same dispensation applying to someone who needs to take medicine during the day that breaks the fast and that he can not delay taking until night.

⁹ It is permissible not to fast when traveling, even when the intention to fast has been made the night before, provided that the journey is at least 80.64 km one way, and that one leaves town before dawn. If one leaves after dawn, one is not entitled to omit the fast. It is preferable for travellers not to fast if fasting would harm them, though if not, then fasting is better.

Section: The Integrals of Fasting of Ramaḍān are Three:

1. To make an intention at night for each day of the farḍ (fast).
2. To refraining from intentionally doing things which break the fast, for the one who is conscious of his fast and is not ignorant.
3. The fasting person himself.

Major kaffārah (expiation) and specified punishment are compulsory, together with making-up the fast for he who breaks his fast of Ramaḍān a complete day by having complete intercourse in which he becomes sinner in his fast.¹⁰

There are six situations in which it is compulsory for one to abstain from things which break the fast¹¹ and also necessitate the making-up of that fast later.

1. Breaking his fast with a wrong act from his side in the month of Ramaḍān only.¹²
2. Upon one who omits the intention at night for the farḍ fast.
3. Upon one who has sahur (a meal before dawn) thinking that the night still remains, but it was not so.
4. Upon one who breaks the fast thinking that the sun has set but it was not so.¹³

¹⁰ The legal occasion of the offense is the particular day of fasting, so that if it were committed on two separate days, two separate expiations would be necessary, though if it were committed twice in one day there would be only one expiation.

The expiation consist of freeing a sound Muslim slave, or if not possible, then to fast the days of two consecutive months. If this is not possible, then the expiation is to feed sixty poor persons (509 grams of food to each poor person). If one is unable to do this, the expiation remains as an unperformed obligation upon the person concerned.

The woman with whom intercourse is performed is not obliged to expiate it.

¹¹ Wājib to fast the remainder of the day.

¹² Like a person who is intoxicated from the night until the morning of Ramaḍān, it is binding for him to abstain from things which break the fast and also to recover that fast later.

5. Upon one who has reckoned the 30th of Sha‘bān to be the first of Ramaḍān.
6. Upon one who was excessive in gargling and in putting water into the nostrils to such an extent that the water goes down the throat.¹⁴

The Types of Breaking the Fast are Four:

1. The things that make qaḍā' and fidyah¹⁶ wājib are two:
 - Breaking the fast due to the fear of harm for others.¹⁷
 - Breaking the fast and thereafter delaying to make-up for it until the next Ramaḍān comes.¹⁸
2. Those for which qaḍā' is compulsory but not the fidyah, like one who is unconscious.
3. Those for which fidyah is compulsory but not the qaḍā', like a very old man.
4. That which is neither wājib nor permissible,¹⁹ like the insane person who's insanity is not caused by transgression.

¹⁶ One must pay 509 grams of food to the poor for each fast-day missed, in addition to making it up.

¹⁷ A woman who is breast-feeding a baby or is pregnant and apprehends harm to herself or her child may omit the fast and make it up later, though if she omits it because of fear of harm for the child alone not for herself then she must give 509 grams of food in charity for each day missed as an expiation in addition to making-up each day.

¹⁸ When making-up, if a fast-day is delayed until a second Ramaḍān comes, then one must pay an additional 509 grams to be paid for that day.

¹⁹ A person who is forced, his fast will not break because he is not responsible for what he has been forced to do.

فصل : الَّذِي لَا يُفْطِرُ مِمَّا يَصِلُ إِلَى الْجَوْفِ سَبْعَةٌ أَفْرَادٌ :

- (1) مَا يَصِلُ إِلَى الْجَوْفِ بِنَسْيَانٍ (2) أَوْ جَهْلٍ (3) أَوْ إِكْرَاهٍ (4) وَبِجَرَيَانٍ رِيْقٍ
بِمَا بَيْنَ أَسْنَانِهِ وَقَدْ عَجَزَ عَنْ مَجِّهِ لِعُذْرِهِ (5) وَمَا وَصَلَ إِلَى الْجَوْفِ وَكَانَ غُبَارَ
طَرِيقٍ (6) وَمَا وَصَلَ إِلَيْهِ وَكَانَ غَرْبَلَةً دَقِيقٍ (7) أَوْ ذُبَابًا طَائِرًا أَوْ نَحْوَهُ .

Section: The Things Which by Reaching the Stomach, Do Not Break the Fast are Seven:

1. – 3. That which reaches the body cavity²⁰ out of forgetfulness, ignorance or force.²¹
4. The mixing of saliva with what is between the teeth²² and he is unable to discharge it, he is therefore excused.
5. The dust of the road which reaches to the body cavity.
6. - 7. The dust of sifted flour or flies etc. which reach the body cavity.

²⁰ Through an open passage-way

²¹ The deliberate intake of anything besides air or saliva into the body cavity breaks the fast.

²² Food etc. provided this is after having cleaned between them after eating, by using a toothpick or the like between them.

Hajj and 'Umrah

Hajj and 'Umrah.

The Conditions for Hajj being Wājib are Six:

1. Islām.
2. Sanity.
3. Reached puberty.
4. Free person.
5. The way towards Makkah is safe.¹
6. Having ability (Sufficient provision and conveyance for the journey).²

¹ Safety for one's person and property from predators and enemies, whether the latter be non-Muslims or highway robbers, even when the amount is inconsiderable including hajj fees.

² To be able to pay for the provision and transportation for the journey, with money one has that is in excess of the amount one requires to support and cloth the members of one's family. This applies to one who is travelling there and back, and while obtaining lodgings for oneself, and that is in excess of any money one owes for debts, even those not yet due. It is also a condition that one have sufficient time to travel to Makkah al-Mukarramah means that one can reach Makkah and having sufficient time to perform all the rituals of hajj.

The Integrals of Ḥajj are Six:

1. Iḥrām – to make the intention of performing ḥajj in the heart and to recite the talbiyah.
2. Wuqūf – To stay in 'Arāfah; even if it be for a little while after zawāl of the 9th of Dhul Ḥijjah until the dawn of the 10th of Dhul Ḥijjah.
3. To make “ṭawaf al-Ifāḍah” which is performed after the stay in 'Arāfah.³
4. Sa'ī - going between ṣafā and Marwah.⁴
5. Ḥalq – shaving or shortening the hair.⁵
6. Tartīb (sequence).

The Integrals of 'Umrah are Five:

1. Iḥrām – to make the intention of performing 'umrah in the heart.
2. To make ṭawaf of 'umrah.

³ On the 10th Dhul ḥijjah, one enters Makkah and performs ṭawāf al-Ifāḍah, which is an integral without which the ḥajj remains unfinished (meaning that, it may not be compensated for by merely slaughtering, though the time it may be performed is anytime thereafter.).

⁴ Seven times, one begins at ṣafā and ends at Marwah

⁵ The best way for men is to shave the entire head, though one may confine oneself by removing, by any means, three hairs thereof from the head, not something such as the beard or moustache, or may merely shorten it, for which the optimal is to clip a little less than two centimetres from all the hair. As for women, it is optimal for them to shorten their hair in the latter way, it being makrūh (offensive) for a woman to shave her head.

3. Sa'ī - going between Sāfā and Marwah.
4. Shaving or shortening the hair.
5. Tartīb (sequence).

The Wājibat (Requisites)⁶ of Ḥajj are Five:

1. One enters iḥrām at the miqat (proper site).
2. Staying the night at Muzdālifah.⁷
3. Stoning the three “al-Jamrat” (the stoning site).
4. Staying the night following the ‘Eid⁸ at Mīnā.⁹
5. ṭawāf al-wada’

⁶ Arkān (integrals) and wājib (requisites) are synonyms except in this chapter, the integral means that ḥajj will not exist except with it, and the requisite means the dam (expiation) becomes compulsory by leaving it.

⁷ When the sun sets on 9 Dhul ḥijjah, those on ḥajj go forth to Muzdālifah occupied with dhikr and talbiyah proceeding with tranquillity and dignity, and they join the Maghrīb and ‘Ishā’ at Muzdālifah.

⁸ Ayyām al-tashrīq – 11, 12, 13 of Dhul ḥijjah.

⁹ When finished with the ṭawāf al-Ifādah and going between safa and Marwah, [doing the latter if one had not yet previously performed it after the ṭawāf quḍūm (arrival circumambulation)], one is obliged to return to Mīna to stay overnight there and to stone on the days following the ‘Eid (Ayyām al-Tashrīq). It is desirable to arrive before noon to perform the Ṣuḥr prayer there as the Prophet ﷺ did, and to spend the night there.

One picks up twenty-one pebbles from Mīnā on the days after the ‘Eid, taking care to shun the three places of stoning.

Unlawful Things While in Ihram are Ten:

1. Men wearing sewn garments.
2. Men covering their head.
3. Combing hair.
4. Shaving hair or plucking it.
5. Trimming nails.
6. Applying perfume.
7. Killing a game animal.
8. Performing nikāh.
9. Having sexual intercourse
10. Sexual foreplay other than intercourse.

The Expiations of Hajj and 'Umrah are Four Categories:

(I) Dam tartīb wa taqdīr – expiation consist of alternatives in a fixed precedence order and predetermined amount:

- One must slaughter a sheep and distribute its meat to the poor in the ḥarām, or if unable to slaughter, then,
- One must fast three days during the Hajj and seven more at home, making ten days, or if one fails to do so while there, as is obligatory,
- They become a makeup fast that must be performed before the other seven fasted at home by an interval equal to the days of one's journey home.

There are nine things which necessitate this type of expiation:

1. Performing an 'umrah first (tamattu' hajj).
2. Performing hajj and 'umrah simultaneously (qiran).
3. Not standing at 'Arāfah.
4. To miss stoning at the stoning sites of Mīnā on the three days after the 'Eid, the time for which ends at sunset on the third day if one does not leave early.
5. To miss all three nights at Mīnā after the 'Eid, though if one only misses a single night, one distributes 509 grams of wheat to the poor of the ḥarām, and if two nights, then double this amount.
6. To miss spending the night at Muzdalifah.
7. Not entering iḥrām at the mīqāt (proper site).
8. Breaking one's vow.
9. Not performing the Ṭawāf al-Wada' (farewell circumambulation).

(II) Dam takhyīr wa taqdīr – expiation in which one is free to choose one of three predetermined alternatives namely:

- To slaughter and distribute a sheep.
- To fast three days, even if unconsecutive, wherever one wishes.

- To give 2.036 kgs of wheat to each of six of the poor of the ḥarām.

There are eight things which necessitate this type of expiation:

1. Removal of three hairs at one time and place, meaning that the interval between removing each is not considered long, and one has remained at the same place, though if their removal does not occur at a single time and place, one must pay 509 grams of wheat to the poor or fast one day for each hair, even if their number exceeds three.
2. Trimming three nails at one time and place, with the same rules and restriction as just mentioned.
3. Men wearing sewn garments or covering their head, or women covering their faces.
4. Using oil.
5. Using scent.
6. Sexual foreplay other than intercourse.
7. Having sexual intercourse a second time after having spoiled one's ḥajj by an initial sexual intercourse.
8. Having sexual intercourse between partial and full release from iḥrām.¹⁰

¹⁰ The release from iḥrām in ḥajj is in two stages, partial and full: Partial release from iḥrām occurs when any two of the three rites of stoning, cutting the hair and ṭawāf are performed. Doing any two of them accomplishes partial release from iḥrām, rendering permissible all

(III) Dam tartīb wa ta'dīl – expiation in a fixed precedence order of alternatives involving estimate-based substitutes:

It is necessary due to two things:

1. Being prevented by another from completing all the integrals of the ḥajj or 'umrah, in which case one must release oneself from iḥrām by:
 - One must slaughter a sheep and distribute its meat to the poor in the ḥarām, or if unable to slaughter, then,
 - One must fast three days during the ḥajj and seven more at home, making ten days, or if one fails to do so while there as is obligatory,
 - They become a makeup fast that must be performed before the other seven fasted at home by an interval.
2. Having spoiled one's ḥajj or 'umrah by sexual intercourse¹¹ in which case one must slaughter a camel, or if unable to, things that were made unlawful by iḥrām except those relating to women, such as sexual intercourse, getting married, or touching with desire.

Full release from iḥrām occurs when all three rites have been performed, and it renders permissible everything made unlawful by iḥrām, though one still has to stone at the three jamrat and stay overnight at Mīnā during the days following the 'Eid (Ayyām al-Tashrīq).

¹¹ If one intentionally has sexual intercourse before finishing one's 'umrah, or while on ḥajj before partial release from iḥrām. It is wājib to pay the expiation for the male, not the female.

then one must slaughter, (2) a cow, but if not possible, then, (3) seven sheep, but if not possible, then, (4) one estimates the cost of a camel and how much food this would buy, and then gives that much food to the poor in the ḥarām, but if not possible, then, (5) one fasts one day for every 509 grams of food that would have been given had (4) been done. (One may fast anywhere, but it is not permissible to delay it without an excuse.)

(IV) Dam takhyīr wa ta'dīl - expiation in which one is free to choose between alternatives consisting of estimate-based substitutes.

It is necessitated by two things:

1. Killing a game animal while in iḥrām, one may fulfil the expiation either by slaughtering a domestic animal that is like the wild animal which was killed, or to distribute funds to the poor, which equal the value of the game animal or to buy food equal to the animal's value and to distribute it as charity or to fast one day for each 509 grams of food. Although if the animal was a pigeon, one is obliged to slaughter a sheep which is obligatory for killing even a single pigeon.

2. Destroying a tree of the ḥarām, where, if it is large in relation to other trees of its kind, one slaughters and distributes a cow, and if small, one slaughters a sheep.

To Visit the Tomb of Rasūlullah ﷺ

It is mustaḥab when one has finished the ḥajj to visit the tomb of Rasūlullah ﷺ in al-Madīnah al-Munawwarah.

وَاللَّهُ أَعْلَمُ بِالصَّوَابِ.

Allah knows best.

We ask Almighty Allah through the dignity of His graceful prophet that He takes me, my parents, my beloved ones, and those who were related to me, from this world as Muslims, and that He forgives me and them for our recklessness and weakness. Peace be upon our master Muḥammad ibn ‘Abdullah ibn ‘Abdul Muṭṭalib ibn Hāshim ibn ‘Abd Manaf, the Messenger of Allah to the entire creation, the Warrior Prophet, the Beloved of Allah, the Conqueror and the Seal, and peace be upon his entire family and all his Companions. It is sunnah to end the du'ā with ṣalāh (Salutation) and Hamd (Praise):

وَصَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَى سَيِّدِنَا مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَسَلَّمَ
وَالْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ

Appendix 2: Authorized Books in Shāfi'i Madhhab

The main aspect in the foundation of the madhhab is the verdict of the al-Imām. The 'Ulamā' and the books constitute the basis and source of strength of the madhhab. The 'Ulamā' explain and elaborate the original verdict of the Imām and disseminate them while the books preserve and ensure that the authentic views of the madhhab are transmitted to a later generation.

Imām al-ḥarāmīn 'Abd al-Malik ibn 'Abdullah al-Juwaynī (478 H) has gathered all four main fiqh books of al-qawl al-jadīd (new verdict) of al-Imām al-Shāfi'ī (204 H) namely al-Umm, al-Imla', al-Mukhtaṣar by al-Imām al-Buwaiṭī (231 H) and al-Mukhtaṣar by al-Imām al-Muzānī (264 H) in one book entitled Nihāyat al-Maṭlab.

This book of Imām al-ḥarāmīn has been abridged three times by his student, Hujjat al-Islām al-Imām al-Ghazālī (505 H). The first abridgement is al-Basīt, al-Wasīt the second and finally al-Wajīz. Al-Imām al-Rāfi'ī (623 H) summarized al-Wajīz and entitled it al-Muḥarrar. Al-Imām al-Rāfi'ī also had written a commentary of al-Wajīz in two books namely Sharh al-kabir or Fath al-'Aziz fi sharh al-Wajīz and Sharh al-ṣaghīr.

Al-Imām al-Nawawī (676 H) abridged Fath al-'Aziz in his book, Raudat al-ṭālibīn wa 'umdat al-muṭtiyyīn. This was later abridged by Ibn al-Muqrī (837 H) in Rauḍ al-ṭalib and Shaykh al-Islām Zakariyyā al-Anṣārī (925 H) compiled a commentary on it, naming it Asna al-maṭālib sharh Rauḍ al-ṭalib. Beside ar-Rauḍ, Rauḍah al-ṭalibīn also has been abridged by al-Imām Aḥmad ibn 'Umar al-Muzajjad (930 H) in the book entitled, al-'Ubab and al-Imām Ibn Ḥajar al-Makkī prepared a commentary named al-Ī'āb sharh al-'Ubāb. Al-Sharaf al-Muqrī ṣāhib al-Rauḍ abridged it second time in a book entitled al-Irshād. A commentary on it was prepared by al-Imām Ibn Ḥajar al-Makkī named Fath al-jawād sharh al-Irshād.

Al-Imām al-Nawawī had abridged al-Muharrar and entitled it Minhāj al-ṭalibīn. It was thereafter abridged by Shaykh al-Islām Zakariyyā al-Anṣārī in his book Manhaj al-ṭullab and he authored a commentary on it namely Fath al-Wahhāb bi sharḥ Manhaj al-ṭullab. Al-Imām al-Jauharī abridged al-Manhaj and named it al-Nahj.

Tarjīh (preference) in the madhhab rests upon the verdicts of al-Shaykhayn; al-Imām al-Rāfi 'ī and al-Imām al-Nawawī. This is the unanimous view of muhaqqiqs (researchers) of the madhhab. If these two Imāms have a difference opinion, the verdict of al-Imām al-Nawawī will be given preference over the verdict of al-Imām al-Rāfi 'ī.

If the writings of al-Imām al-Nawawī differ, generally the the order of what will be given preference to is (1) al-Tahqīq, (2) al-Majmū', (3) al-Tanqīh, (4) al-Rauḍah, (5) al-Minhāj and his fatāwā (legal verdicts), (7) Sharh Muslim, and finally (8) Taṣḥīḥ al-Tanbīh and its nukāt (marginal note). The view on which of his books are unanimous will be given preference over the view on which only a few of his books are unanimous. The view discussed under its relevant chapter is given preference over that which is discussed in another chapter.

Al-Imām al-Subkī (765 H) mentioned regarding al-Minhāj of al-Imām al-Nawawī, “In this era, this book is the most excellent book for students and many scholars to understand the madhhab.” There are almost one hundred commentaries of the al-Minhāj. It has been abridged, explained, annotated and compiled in the form of poetry. The four main commentaries of al-Minhāj are (1) Tuḥfat al-muhtāj by al-Imām Aḥmad ibn 'Alī ibn Ḥajar al-Haytamī al-Makkī (974 H), (2) Nihāyat al-muhtāj ilā sharh al-Minhāj by al-Imām Shams al-Dīn Muḥammad ibn Aḥmad ibn Hamzah al-Ramlī (1004 H), (3) Mughnī al-muhtāj ilā ma rifat al-ma'āni alfāz sharh al-Minhāj by al-Imām Shams al-Dīn Muḥammad ibn Aḥmad al-Khāṭib al-Shirbīnī (977 H) and (4) Kanz al-rāghibīn sharh Minhāj al-ṭālibīn by al-Imām Jalāl al-Dīn Muḥammad ibn Aḥmad al-Maḥallī (864 H).

The above mentioned books hold an authoritative position in the madhhab. However, if there is difference opinion, preference is given to al-Tuḥfah of al-Imām Ibn Ḥajar al-

Haytamī and al-Nihayah of al-Imām Shams al-Dīn al-Ramlī. Thereafter, preference is given to Sharh al-ṣaghīr ‘alā al-Bahjah and then, Fath al-Wahhāb bi sharh Manhaj al-ṭullāb both by Shaykh al-Islām Zakariyyā al-Anṣārī. Finally, preference is given to Sharh al-Imām al-Khāṭib al-Shirbīnī and Sharh al-Imām al-Maḥallī.

Among the books of al-Imām Ibn Hajar, the order of merit is al-Tuḥfah, Fath al-Jawād, al-Imdād, the fatāwā (legal opinions) and sharh al-‘Ubāb have the same merit, however, giving preference to the commentary is better.

The order of merit among the ḥawāshī (marginal notes) is ḥāshiyah ‘alā Sharh al-Manhaj by al-Imām ‘Alī al-Ziyādī (1024 H) then Ibn Qasim al-‘Abbādī (994 H) on al-Tuḥfah, then Shaykh ‘Umairah (957 H) marginal note on al-Maḥallī, then the verdict of Shaykh ‘Alī al-Shabramallisī (1087 H) on al-Nihāyah. Thereafter, Ḥāshiyah al-Halabī, al-Shaubarī, al-‘Anānī. Their opinions are taken if they do not differ with the original standpoint.

Despite this, deriving rulings from the book alone without studying under the ‘Ulamā’ is not permissible. Rasūlullah ﷺ said:

إِنَّمَا الْعِلْمُ بِالتَّعَلُّمِ

Knowledge is acquired through learning from the scholar.

Appendix 3: 'Ālam – Biographical Notes

Al-Imām al-Shāfi'ī

Al-Imām al-Shāfi'ī is Muḥammad ibn Idrīs ibn al- 'Abbās ibn 'Uthmān ibn Shafi' ibn al-Sā'ib ibn 'Abdullah ibn 'Abd Yazid ibn Hāshim ibn al-Muttalib ibn 'Abd Manaf, Abu 'Abdillāh al-Qurashī al-Makkī al-Shāfi'ī, the offspring of the House of the Prophet, the peerless one of the great mujtahid imāms and jurisprudent par excellence, the scrupulously pious ascetic and Friend of Allah.

He was born in Ghazza, Palestine in 150 H, the year of al-Imām Abū Hanīfah's death, and moved to Makkah at the age of two, following his father's death, where he grew up. He was early a skillful archer, then he took to learn language and poetry until he gave himself to fiqh, beginning with hadīth. He memorized the Qur'ān at age seven, then al-Imām Mālik's Muwatṭa' at age ten, at which time his teacher would deputize him to teach in his absence. At age thirteen he went to see al-Imām Mālik, who was impressed by his memory and intelligence.

al-Imām Mālik ibn Anas and al-Imām Muḥammad ibn al-Hasan al-Shaybānī were among his most prominent teachers and he took position against both of them in fiqh.

Like al-Imām Abu Hanīfah and al-Imām al-Bukhārī, he recited the entire Qur'ān each day at prayer, and twice a day in the month of Ramaḍan.

al-Imām al-Muzānī said: “I never saw one more handsome of face than al-Shāfi‘ī . If he grasped his beard it would not exceed his fist.” al-Imām Ibn Rahuyah described him in Makkah as wearing bright white clothes with an intensely black beard. al-Imām al-Za`farani said that when he was in Baghdad in the year 195 he dyed his beard with henna.

Abu `Ubayd al-Qasim ibn Sallam said: “If the intelligence of an entire nation was brought together he would have encompassed it.” Similarly, al-Muzani said: “I have been looking into al-Shāfi‘ī’s Riṣālāh for fifty years, and I do not recall a single time I looked at it without learning some new benefit.”

Someone criticized al-Imām Aḥmad ibn Hanbal for attending the fiqh sessions of al-Shāfi‘ī and leaving the hadīth sessions of al-Imām Sufyan ibn `Uyaynah. Imām Aḥmad replied: “Keep quiet! If you miss a hadīth with a shorter chain you can find it elsewhere with a longer chain and it will not harm you. But if you do not have the reasoning of this man [al-Shāfi‘ī], I fear you will never be able to find it elsewhere.”

Yūnus ibn Abī Ya‘lā said: “Whenever al-Shāfi‘ī went into tafsīr, it was as if he had witnessed the revelation.” Aḥmad ibn

Ḥanbal also said: “Not one of the scholars of hadīth touched an inkwell nor a pen except he owed a huge debt to al-Shāfi‘ī.”

Two schools of legal thought or madhāhib are actually attributed to al-Imām al-Shāfi‘ī, englobing his writings and legal opinions (fatāwā). These two schools are known in the terminology of jurists as “al-Qadīm” (The Old) and “al-Jadīd” (The New), corresponding respectively to his stays in Iraq and Egypt. The most prominent transmitters of the Qawl al-Jadīd among al-Shāfi‘ī’s students are al-Buwayṭī, al-Muzānī, al-Rabī‘ al-Murādī, and al-Bulqīnī, in Kitāb al-Umm (The Motherbook). The most prominent transmitters of the Qawl al-Qadīm are al-Imām Aḥmad ibn Ḥanbal, al-Karābīsī, al-Za‘farānī, and Abū Thawr.

Al-Subkī related that the Shāfi‘ī scholars considered al-Rabī‘’s narration from al-Shāfi‘ī sounder from the viewpoint of transmission, while they considered al-Muzānī’s sounder from the viewpoint of fiqh, although both were established hadīth masters.

Al-Imām Al-Shāfi‘ī is the author of some 113 works, it was nonetheless al-Shāfi‘ī’s hope that “people would learn this knowledge without ascribing a single letter of it to me,” and as Shaykh al-Islām Zakariyyā al-Anṣārī remarked, “Allah granted his wish, for one seldom hears any position of his, save that it is ascribed to others of his school with the words, al-Rāfi‘ī or al-

Nawawī or al-Zarkashī says ...” and the like. He studied and taught Sacred Law in Cairo until his death at fifty-three year of age in 204 H. the end of a lifetime of service to Islām and the Muslims by one of the greatest in knowledge of the Qur’ān and Sunnah.

Imām al-ḥarāmain

Imām al-ḥarāmain (The Imām of the Two Sanctuaries) Abū Ma‘ālī ‘Abd al-Mālīk ibn ‘Abdullah ibn Yūsuf al-Juwaynī, a scholar in tenets of faith and the Imām of the Shāfi‘ī school of his time, originally from Juwain (in present-day Afghanistan), born in 419 H. He was educated by his father, and after his death read his father’s entire library and then took his place as teacher at Nishapur, though he was later forced to travel to Baghdad because of trouble between the Ash‘aris, Mu’tazilites, and Shiites. After meeting the greatest scholar of Baghdad, he went on to Makkah, living in the Sacred Precint for four years, after which he moved to Madīnah and taught and gave fatāwā (formal legal opinions), gaining his nickname, the Imām of the Two Sanctuaries, i.e. Makkah and Madīnah.

At length he returned to Persia, where the vizier Nizām al-Mulk, having built a first Nizāmiyyah Academy in Baghdad for Abū Ishaq al-Shīrāzī to teach in, built a second one for Imām alḥarāmain at Nishapur. It was here the Imām wrote in earnest, completing his fifteen-volume “Nihāyat al-maṭlab fī dirāyat al-madhhab” which no one in the field of Islāmīc law had ever produced the like of, as well as other works in tenet of faith, Ash‘ari theology, fundamentals of Islāmīc legal methodology, and Shāfi‘ī law. Among his greatest legacies to Islām and the Muslim was his student al-Imām al-Ghazālī, who is said to have surpassed even the Imām at the end of his life. He died in Nishapur in 478 H.

Al-Imām Abū Ishaq al-Shīrāzī

Al-Imām Abū Ishaq, Ibrāhīm ibn ‘Alī ibn Yūsuf al-Shīrāzī al-Fayruzābādī is a Shāfi‘ī Imām, teacher, and debater. Born in Fayruzābād, Persia, in 393 H, he studied in Shiraz and Basra before coming to Baghdad where he displayed his genius in Sacred Law, becoming the mufti of the Muslim Ummah (Islāmīc Community) of his time, the sheikh of the Nizāmiyyah Academy which the vizier Nizām al-Mulk built in Baghdad to accommodate al-Imām Abū Ishaq’s students.

He was known for the persuasiveness with which he could urge a case in discussions, and he authored many works, among the most famous of them his two-volume al-Muhadhdhab fī fiqh al-Imām al-Shāfi‘ī which took him fourteen years to produce, and which furnished the basic text for al-Imām al-Nawawī's al-Majmū' Sharh al-Muhadhdhab. He died in Baghdad in 476 H.

Al-Imām al-Ghazālī

Hujjatul Islām (Proof of Islām) Abu Hamid Muḥammad ibn Muḥammad al-Ghazālī al-Ṭūsī is the Shāfi'ī Imām and Sufi adept born in Tabiran, near Ṭūs (just north of present-day Mashhad, Iran) in 450 H. The Imām of his time, nicknamed al-Shāfi'ī the Second for his legal virtuosity, he was a brilliant intellectual who first studied jurisprudence at Ṭūs, and then travelled the Islāmic world, to Baghdad, Damascus, Jerusalem, Cairo, Alexandria, Makkah and Madīnah, taking fiqh from its master, among them Imām al-ḥarāmain al-Juwaynī, with whom he studied until the Imām's death, becoming at his hands a scholar in Shāfi'ī law, logic, tenet of faith, debate and in the rationalistic doctrines of the philosophical school of his time, which he was later called upon to refute. When Imām al-ḥarāmain died, al-Imām al-Ghazālī debated the Imāms and scholars of Baghdad in the presence of the vizier Nizām al-Mulk, who was so impressed that he appointed him to a teaching post at the Nizāmiyyah Academy in Baghdad, where word of his brilliance spread, and scholars journeyed to him.

His worldly success was something of a mixed blessing, and in mid-career, after considerable reflection, he was gripped by an intense fear for his soul and his fate in the afterlife, and he resigned from his post, travelling first to Jerusalem and then to Damascus to purify his heart by following the way of Sufism. In Damascus he lived in seclusion for some ten years, engaged in spiritual struggle and the remembrance of Allah, at the end of which he emerged to produce his masterpiece Ihyā' ulūm al-dīn, the work shows how deeply al-Imām al-Ghazālī personally realized what he wrote about, and his masterly treatment of hundreds of questions dealing with the inner life that no one had previously discussed or solved is a performance of sustained excellence that shows its author's well-disciplined, legal intellect and profound appreciation of human psychology. He also wrote nearly two hundred other works, on the theory of government, Sacred Law, refutation of philosophers, tenet of faith, Sufism, Qur'ānic exegesis, scholastic theology, and bases of Islām ic jurisprudence. He died in Tabiran in 505 H.

Al-Imām al-Rāfi‘ī

Abū al-Qāsim ‘Abd al-Karīm ibn Muḥammad al-Rāfi‘ī of Qazvin, Persia, born in 557 H is the imām of his time in Sacred Law and Qur’ānic exegesis. He represents, with al-Imām al-Nawawī, the principle reference of the late Shāfi‘ī School. His main work, a commentary on al-Imām al-Ghazālī al-Wajiz entitled Fath al-‘Azīz fī sharh al-Wajīz was later to furnish the textual basis for al-Imām al-Nawawī’s Minhāj al-ṭālibīn. Al-Imām Taj al-Dīn al-Subkī noted of its author, “Al-Imām al-Rāfi‘ī was steeped to repletion in the sciences of Sacred Law, Qur’ānic exegesis, hadīth, and fundamentals of Islāmic legal methodology, towering above his contemporaries in the transmission of evidence, in research, guidance, and in attainment.... It was as if jurisprudence had been dead, and he revived it and spread it, raising its foundation after ignorance had killed and buried it.” He authored works in Sacred Law and history, and taught Qur’ānic exegesis and hadīth in Qazvin, where the hadīth master Imām Mundhīrī was among his students. Known as a pure-hearted ascetic who followed the mystic path, al-Imām al-Nawawī observed of him that he “had a firm standing in righteous and many miracles were vouchsafed to him.” He died in Qazvin in 623 H.

Al-Imām al-Nawawī

Al-Imām Muhy al-Dīn Abū Zakariyyā Yahyā ibn Sharaf al-Nawawī, born in the village of Nawa on the Horan Plain of southern Syria in 631 H. He was the imām of the later Shāfi'ī School, the scholar of his time in knowledge, piety, and abstinence, a hadīth master (hāfiz), biographer, lexicologist, and Sufi. When he first came to Damascus in 649 H., he memorized the text of al-Imām Abū Ishaq al-Shīrāzī; al-Tanbīh in four and a half month, then the first quarter of al-Muhadhdhab, after which he accompanied his father on ḥajj, then visited Madīnah, and then returned to Damascus, where he assiduously devoted himself to mastering the Islām ic sciences. He took Shāfi'ī Law, hadīth, tenets of faith, fundamentals of jurisprudence, Arabic and other subjects from more than twenty-two scholars of the time, including Abū Ibrāhīm Ishaq al-Maghribī, 'Abd al-Rahman ibn Qudāmah al-Maqdisī, and others, at a period of his life in which, as al-Imām al-Dhahabī notes, "his dedication to learning, night and day, became proverbial." Spending all his time in either worship or gaining Sacred Knowledge, he took some twelve lessons a day, only dozed off in the night at moments when sleep overcame him, and drilled himself on the lessons he learned by heart while walking along the street. Fastidious in detail and deep in understanding of the subjects he thus mastered. He authored many great works in Shāfi'ī jurisprudence, hadīth, history, and legal opinion, among the best known of which are his Minhāj al-ṭālibīn, which has become a main reference for the Shāfi'ī School, Riyāḍ al-ṣālihīn and Kitāb al-adhkār in hadīth, and his eighteen-volume Sharh Ṣaḥīh Muslim.

He lived simply, and it is related that his entire wardrobe consisted of a turban and an ankle-length shirt with a single button at the collar. After a residence in Damascus of twenty-seven years, he returned the books he had borrowed from charitable endowments, bade his friends farewell, visited the graves of his Shaykhs who had died, and departed, going first to Jerusalem and then to his native Nawa, where he became ill at his father's home and died at forty-four years of age in 676 H, young in years but great in benefit to Islām and the Muslims.

Shaykh al-Islām Zakariyyā al-Anṣārī

Shaykh al-Islām Abū Yahya Zakariyya ibn Muḥammad ibn Aḥmad al-Anṣārī, born in Sanika, Egypt, in 823 H, is known as the shaykh of shaykhs. He was the Shāfi'ī scholar of his time, a hadīth master (hāfiẓ), judge and Qur'ānic exegete. He was educated in Cairo in circumstances of such poverty that he used to have to leave the mosque by night to look for watermelon rinds, which he would wash and eat.

When his knowledge later won him fame and recognition, he was to receive so many gifts that his income before his appointment to the judiciary amounted to nearly three thousand dirhams a day, which he spent to gather books, teach and give financial help to the students who studied with him. When Sultan Quytubay al-Jurkasi appointed him as head of the judiciary in Cairo, he accepted the post with reluctance after being repeatedly asked, but when the sultan later committed a wrong act and he sent him a letter upbraiding him, the sultan dismissed him and he returned to teaching. He authored works in Sacred Law, the sciences of Qur'ān and hadīth, logic, Arabic, fundamentals of jurisprudence, and Sufism, and was the Shaykh of al-Imām Ibn Ḥajar Haytamī. He died in 926 H at one hundred years of age.

Al-Imām Ibn Ḥajar al-Haytamī

Shihab al-Dīn Abū al-'Abbās Aḥmad ibn Muḥammad ibn 'Alī ibn Hajar al-Haytamī al-Makkī is born in 909 H in Abū Haytam, western Egypt. He was the Shāfi'ī Imām of his time, a brilliant scholar of in-depth applications of Sacred Law, and with al-Imām Aḥmad al-Ramlī, represents the foremost resource for fatwa (legal opinion) for the entire late Shāfi'ī School. He was educated at al-Azhar, but later moved to Makkah, where he authored major works in Shāfi'ī jurisprudence, hadīth, tenets of faith, education, hadīth commentary, and formal legal opinion. His most famous works include Tuhfah al-muhtāj bi sharh al-Minhāj, a commentary on al-Imām al-Nawawī's Minhāj al-ṭālibīn whose ten volumes represent a high point in Shāfi'ī scholarship; the four volume al-Fatāwā al-kubrā al-fiqhiyyah; and al-Zawājir 'an iqtirāf al-kabā'ir, which with its detailed presentation of Qur'ān and Hadīth evidence and masterful legal inferences, remains unique among Muslim works dealing with taqwa (godfearingness) and is even recognized by Hanafi scholars like al-Imām Ibn 'Ābidīn as a source of authoritative legal texts valid in their own school. After a lifetime of outstanding scholarship, the Imām died and was buried in Makkah in 974 H.

Al-Imām Muḥammad al-Shirbīnī al-Khāṭib

Shams al-Din Muḥammad ibn Aḥmad al-Shirbīnī al-Khāṭib of Cairo is a Shāfi'ī Imām and Qur'ānic exegete of knowledge and piety, he studied in Cairo under al-Imām Aḥmad al-Ramlī, as well as Nur al-Dīn al-Maḥallī, Aḥmad Burullusi and others, who authorized him to give formal legal opinion and instruction. He educated a multitude of scholars and his works won recognition in their author's lifetime for their outstanding clarity and reliability, among the most famous of them his four-volume Mughnī al-muḥtaj ilā ma'rifat ma'ānī alḥāz al-Minhāj, a commentary on al-Imām al-Nawawī's Minhāj al-ṭālibīn, and his Qur'ānic exegesis al-Sirāj al-munīr fī al-i'āna 'alā ma'rifa ba'd kalām Rabbīna al-Hakīm al-Khabīr. He died in Cairo in 977 H.
